UNIVERSITY OF GEORGIA
Endowed with 40,000 acres of land in 1784 and chartered in 1785, the charter was the first granted by a state for a government controlled university. After Louisville and then Greensboro were first selected, the current site was chosen.
The first president, and author of the school's charter, Abraham Baldwin, resigned when the doors opened, and was succeeded by Josiah Meigs. The University first began to thrive under Moses Waddel, who became president in 1819. Alonzo Church was president in 1829-1859.
During the War for Southern Independence, most of the students entered the Confederate Army. The University closed its doors in 1864, and did not open again until January 1866. After the war, many Confederate veterans became students.
Famous pre-war professors were John and Joseph LeConte and Charles F. McCay, while famous students were Robert Toombs, Alexander H. Stephens, Howell Cobb, and Crawford W. Long.
Plans for a modern university were first developed by Walter B. Hill and realized under Harmon W. Caldwell. The best known of the post-war presidents (now chancellors) was David C. Barrow. The builder of the modern plant was Chancellor Steadman V. Sanford.

GEORGIA BASKETBALL

$25M

UGA transformed Stegeman Coliseum with two major renovations costing more than $20 million combined to give the arena at 21st century face lift...and has spent additional millions in the past 2-3 years.

FANS FLOCK TO THE STEG:

Georgia Basketball broke its all-time total attendance record for Stegeman Coliseum during both the 2018-19 and 2019-20 seasons. In 2019-20, the Bulldogs' home average of 9,651 was the second-highest in school history as Georgia drew a schol-record 11 crowds of 10,000-plus fans at Stegeman.

STEGEMAN UPDATES:

- In 2010, a $13-million renovation upgraded Stegeman's concourse and added 10,000-square feet of space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won multiple awards including from the American Institute of Architects.
- In 2016-17, an $8-million investment enhanced the Coliseum's court and seating areas and added 1000-square feet of HD video and nearly 3000-square feet of LED scoreboard sections.
- In the past year, athletic training and strength & condititioning facilities have been added to Stegeman Coliseum, creating more than 7000-square feet of basketball-specific space.
- Future plans for Stegeman include installing a 7000-square-foot video board on the arena's distinctive end wall.

NOTABLE NUMERALS

39 Anthony Edwards became Georgia's 39th all-time NBA Draft pick when he was taken No. 1 overall by Minnesota in 2020.

11 UGA drew a school-record 11 crowds topping the 10,000 plateau during the 2019-20 home schedule at Stegeman Coliseum.

97 Georgia Bulldog basketball players have combined to be earn All-SEC 97 accolades during the conference's history.

26 Georgia has earned bids to postseason play 26 times, with all of those coming last 40 seasons. The 1983 Final Four is UGA's best showing.

120 UGA's practice facility, which is adjacent to Stegeman Coliseum, is one of the nation's largest with 120,000 square feet.

90 The SEC Network is the most successful of all college sports TV ventures and was available in 90 million homes when it launched in 2014.

COVERING THE BULLDOGS

The 2023-24 Georgia Basketball Guide was prepared specifically to assist members of the media covering the Bulldogs. Any specific requests beyond the information in this publication – interviews, credentials, photography, etc. – should be directed to:

MOBLEY

Mike Mobley,
Associate SCD
UGA Sports Communications
email: mmobley@sports.uga.edu

MAILING ADDRESS	OVERNIGHT ADDRESS
P.O. Box 1472	One Selig Circle
Athens, Ga. 30603	Athens, Ga. 30605
OFFICE PHONE:	(706) 542-1621
CELL PHONE:	(706) 540-7486

CREDENTIALS

Credentials for Georgia's home games are issued for working media only and should be requested as early as possible. Credentials are issued on a priority basis. All requests should be made via the SportsSystems online credentialing site.

Passes will be mailed when time allows. Other single-game credentials will be left at Media Will Call, which is located inside Gate A on the Smith Street side of the arena (see map on Page 9).

A limited number of parking passes will also be issued to media who cover the majority of UGA's home games. Media parking is in the Coverdell Lot, located off Smith Street behind the Coliseum Training Facility (see map on Page 9). In addition, parking in the Carlton Street deck, which is acutally closer to Media Will Call than the Coverdell Lot, is free of charge for media and fans.

INTERVIEWS

Interviews with coaches and players will be conducted before practice on pre-determined dates. These opportunities will be conducted in person in the Taylor Room of the Coliseum Practice Facility. Unless the calendar necessitates a change, these availabilities will take place the day before each home game. As much advance notice as possible will be given for these dates and times. Please contact Mike Mobley in the Sports Communications office for assistance.

PRACTICES

Georgia's practice sessions are generally closed to the media. Upon request, videographers and photographers may be allowed to shoot a pre-determined portion at the beginning of some practices.

GAME DAY MEDIA SERVICES

Stegeman Coliseum's press facilities are outlined in the diagram to the following page.

The press room is located through Portal 3 and is equipped with wireless and ethernet internet access. A room with similar internet capabilities is available for photographers adjacent to the press room.

A pre-game meal is served in the press room beginning approximately 90 minutes prior to tipoff of each game.

Press seating is located above Portal 2 in section K of the Coliseum's lower bowl. Radio broadcast positions are at the scorer's table, while TV announce locations are at center court opposite the scorer's table.

Complete first-half and final box scores will be provided, as will final game books with the aforementioned as well as first- and second-half play-by-plays, first- and second-half shot charts and post-game notes and quotes.

INTERNET ACCESS

Media wishing to obtain high-speed Internet access may log on via either through wireless or hard-wired ethernet method. Both are available in the media seating area and the working press room within the Coliseum. Please see a member of the UGA Sports Communications office to obtain information on how to access the University network.

IN-GAME STATISTICS

Media covering Georgia home games can view a running statistical account on a web browser by logging onto: uga.statbroadcast.com.

PHOTOGRAPHERS

Only those accredited photographers working on assignment will be issued sideline credentials. Flashes and strobe units are prohibited unless permission has been granted. Photographers should shoot from the designated endzone locations. No photographers are permitted in the bench area of either team.

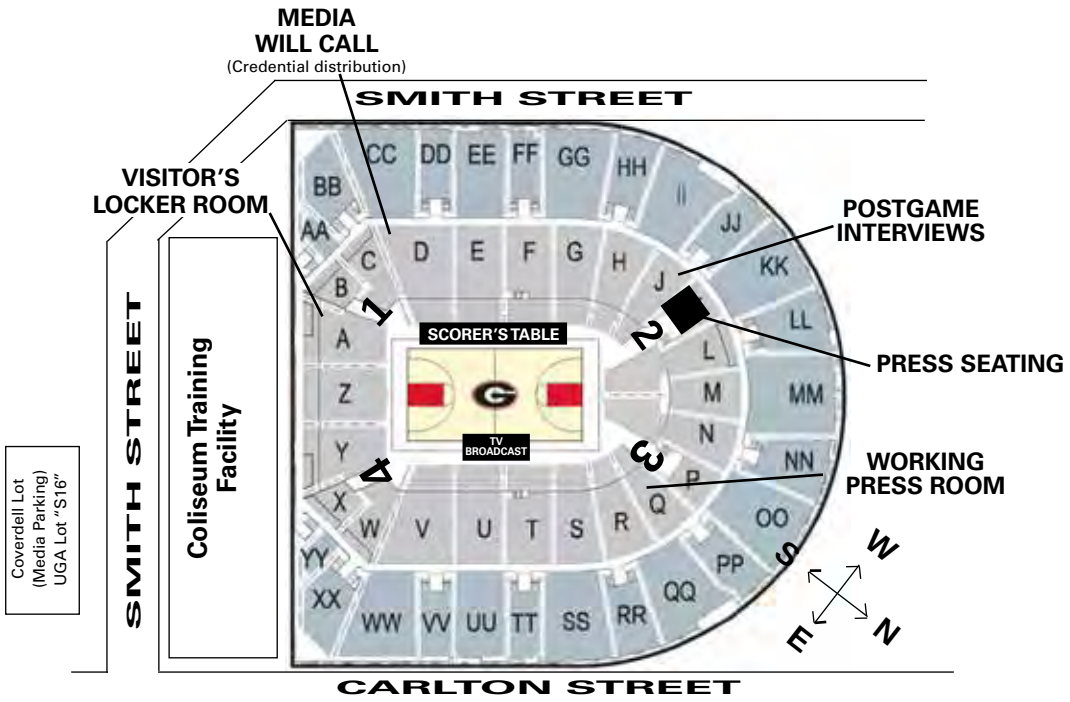
Photographers who wish to transmit their photos on-site are asked to use the room adjacent to the working press room. This area is specifically dedicated to the transmission of photography and provides greater work space.

POSTGAME INTERVIEWS

Following home games, Georgia head coach Mike White and two Bulldog players will be available for interviews in the press conference room accessible via Tunnel 2 of the playing floor.

Zoom sessions with Coach White also will be conducted following road games.

STEGEMAN COLISEUM PRESS FACILITIES DIAGRAM



Visiting teams will determine their own post-game procedure for available players. If those interviews are in person, most opponents choose to conduct those interviews outside their locker room. The location is through Portal 1 of the Coliseum playing floor and through the double-doors to the left at the end of the hallway.

Christened in 1963 as the Georgia Coliseum, the venue was officially renamed and dedicated to the memory of Herman James Stegeman on Saturday, March 2, 1996. Stegeman made many contributions to Georgia's athletic program during his 20-year tenure (1919-39). He was a pioneer in the development of college basketball in the south, originating the region's first big basketball tournament when he organized the Southern Conference Tournament in Atlanta from 1921-32. Stegeman Hall on the UGA campus was named for Coach Stegeman in 1946 and for years it was home of the University's athletic and physical education departments. The athletic department moved its offices to the new coliseum in 1964, and Stegeman Hall was demolished in 1995 following completion of the Ramsey Student Center for Physical Activities.

The Coliseum is actually two separate structures, the roof and the building beneath it. The only connection is an aluminum bellows which seals the joints and permits the rise and fall of the roof with temperature change.

In addition, Stegeman Coliseum was utilized for rhythmic gymnastics and preliminary volleyball competition during the Centennial Olympic Games in 1996.

Stegeman has recently undergone thorough a series of major renovations, receiving a 21st Century face lift. In 2017, fans walked in to the final product following more than $20-million in renovations over several years.

In 2010, Stegeman's concourses received a similar makeover, upgrading the graphics, enhancing spectator access to concessions and restrooms and adding 5,000-square feet of concourse space on each side of the arena. Those efforts won awards from both the American Institute of Architects and the Illuminating Engineering Society of North America.

During the summer of 2017, the arena received a massive center-hung scoreboard, new black seats, an improved LED lighting system, a state-of-the-art sound system and graphics above the horseshoe end celebrating past teams and retired jerseys. That followed work in 2017 which provided a dramatic mural covering the Coliseum's distinctive end wall.

THE GEORGIA BULLDOG RADIO NETWORK

The best and broadest exposure possible for UGA basketball comes from the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network, a joint venture between Learfield and JMI Sports. Not only with its vast number of affiliates, but also from its powerful flagship station AM 750 in Atlanta, the network gives coverage to Bulldog hoops that is unmatched by any program nationwide.

Learfield provides radio network production for more than 150 major college athletic programs within the SEC and other prominent conferences across the United States.

The network flagship is News/Talk 750 WSB — Atlanta's 50,000-watt, clear-channel station — which provides coverage with a signal that reaches more than 35 states and Canada. Scott Howard and Chuck Dowdle will again handle the play-by-play and color analyst duties, respectively. Coach Mike White can also be heard on weeknights during the season on the Bulldog Hotline, heard over most of the network stations.

Scott Howard (right) and Chuck Dowdle will work their 12th season together in 2023-24.

SCOTT HOWARD

The voice of Scott Howard has become synonymous with Georgia sports and in particular, with Bulldog football and basketball. Howard returns for his 29th season behind the microphone at Georgia basketball games. First a color analyst with legendary voice Larry Munson, Howard will be working his 25th season as the Bulldogs' primary play-by-play announcer.

Howard was the sports director at Athens radio stations WNGC-WGAU for 14 years before joining IMG Sports in 2009.

A 1984 Georgia graduate, Howard began his association with Bulldog football as a color analyst alongside Munson in 1994. In 2007, he broadcasted play-by-play action in all of Georgia's road football games, and the next season he became the program's primary radio voice by the third game. Howard was also play-by-play announcer for Georgia baseball from 1990-96.

CHUCK DOWDLE

Native Atlantan Chuck Dowdle, one of the most prominent figures in the Atlanta sports scene, will return to the Georgia Bulldog Radio Network for the his 12th season as color analyst for basketball broadcasts.

Dowdle retired from WSB-TV in 2009 after 24 years as weeknight sports anchor with the top-rated station. Dowdle also worked for WPLG in Miami from 1973-85. During that time, he hosted the Don Shula TV Show and also announced football for the Miami Dolphins and the Miami Hurricanes, as well as the NASL's Ft. Lauderdale Strikers.

During his time at WSB, Dowdle was involved with almost every aspect of Atlanta sports, from announcing Falcons' preseason games to hosting UGA football and basketball coaches' shows. He was also the host of "High-Q", a game show pitting some of the Atlanta region's brightest high-school students against one another in academic competition.

Dowdle attended UGA in his freshman year, where he played for the basketball team. He then transferred to Georgia State, where he was a pitcher for the baseball team in his junior and senior years, before graduating in 1972.

ADAM GILLESPIE

After serving as the back-up producer/engineer for the Georgia Radio Network last season, Adam Gillespie took over in a full-time role beginning with the 2020-21 campaign.

An Athens native who attended high school in Augusta, Gillespie joined the production staff at 680 The Fan in Atlanta in 2005. His role expanded to include producing the postgame show on the Atlanta Braves Network when the stationed the team's broadcast rights in 2010. That same year, 680 became the official sports-talk partner of Georgia Athletics and Gillespie began producing Bulldog Roundtable, the station's 30-minute show devoted exclusively to UGA Athletics which airs on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

It was a different type of Selection Sunday for Georgia Basketball in 2022. While the college basketball universe was focused on the release of the NCAA Tournament bracket for "March Madness," Georgia made waves in the news cycle just as the selection show was ending by announcing Mike White as the Bulldogs' new head coach at 7:54 p.m. ET.

"I am beyond excited for the opportunity to lead the men's basketball program at the University of Georgia," White said when becoming the Bulldogs' head coach. "President Jere W. Morehead and Athletics Director Josh Brooks are united in a strong vision for UGA Basketball which resonated with me deeply. They believe, as I do, in developing our young men as students, athletes and leaders, as well as providing them with the support they need to be successful. I believe in the limitless future of Georgia Basketball."

White, who averaged more than 22 wins per season in 11 campaigns as head coach at Florida and Louisiana Tech, was named the 23rd head men's basketball coach of the Georgia Bulldogs on March 13, 2022. White owns the unique distinction of being named Coach of the Year in three different conferences, securing 2017 SEC, 2015 Conference USA and 2014 WAC honors.

"We are extremely excited to welcome Mike White and his family to Athens," said Josh Brooks, Georgia's J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics. "We have witnessed Coach White to be a leader of men, as well as a proven winner with an impressive postseason body of work. We want to compete for national success in all 21 of our sports, and we believe that he is the coach that can build Georgia Basketball to a consistent winner on the collegiate basketball landscape."

White's first season in Athens was labeled as successful. The Bulldogs upped their win total from the previous season by 10 victories, the second-largest regular-season increase by any Power 5 program. The immediate future looks even brighter as White and his staff signed four top-100 prep prospects and a quintet of impressive transfers. Georgia was one of only three programs to have both its classes of freshmen and transfers ranked among the top-20 nationally by On3.com.

White's entire basketball career has a model of consistent winning and postseason play.

White spent the seven seasons prior to his arrival in Athens at Florida, compiling a 142-88 record and leading the Gators to six postseason bids including four NCAA appearances. In four campaigns at Louisiana Tech between 2011-15, White's Bulldogs compiled a 101-40 record, won a trio of conference regular-season titles and advanced to three NITs.

As a head coach, eight of his teams at Louisiana Tech and Florida reached the 20-win mark, while four notched 27 or more victories. White's squads advanced to postseason play during nine of 11 possible seasons. During another, when the 2020 NCAA Tournament was canceled due to COVID-19, the Gators were a consensus pick for an NCAA Tournament bid. Those teams made solid usage of the opportunities afforded them. Florida was one of only six programs nationally to win a game during each of the four NCAA Tournaments contested between 2017-21, headlined by a trip to the 2017 "Elite Eight." At Louisiana Tech, the Bulldogs won three conference titles – 2013 WAC and 2014 and 2015 Conference USA – and advanced to the NIT quarterfinals in both 2014 and 2015.

White helped five more teams reach 20 wins during his 11 campaigns as an assistant and associate head coach at Ole Miss and Jacksonville State, with the Rebels capturing a pair of SEC West titles. Ole Miss appeared in four NITs during White's seven season, reaching the semifinals in both 2008 and 2010.

As a player, White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss, including SEC West title teams in 1997 and 1998. He helped the Rebels string together three-consecutive 20-wins seasons from 1997-99, with each culminating with an NCAA Tournament bid – both firsts in program history. White fondly lists his proudest achievement as a player as dribbling out the clock of the Rebels' 72-70 victory over Villanova in 1999 to give Ole Miss its first-ever "March Madness" victory.

Totaling up the aforementioned, White has been a part of 16 20-win teams during his 27 seasons as a college basketball player and coach, capturing seven regular-season conference regular-season titles and earning 17 postseason bids.

HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL IN GAINESVILLE

Florida earned six consecutive postseason bids under White, reaching the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, becoming the only SEC program to qualify for four consecutive NCAAs from 2017-21 and advancing to the second round of the 2022 NIT.

From an accolades standpoint, White was voted as 2017 SEC Coach of the Year by both league coaches and the Associated Press after Florida finished second in the SEC and reached the NCAA "Elite Eight." He also was honored as the District Coach of the Year by the NABC and USWBA that season. In addition, Canyon Berry was tabbed 2017 SEC Sixth Man of the Year, seven different Gators were named All-SEC a combined eight times, three players were named to the SEC All-Freshman team and two were selected for the SEC All-Defensive unit during White's tenure.

Florida recorded 21 wins during White's first campaign in Gainesville, matching the program record for a first-year head coach. The Gators posted their first top-10 win in nearly five years by topping ninth-ranked West Virginia in the SEC/Big 12 Challenge and captured their first road victory ever against a Big Ten program by defeating Ohio State in the NIT.

White led Florida to the "Elite Eight" and 27 victories during his second season, just the eighth time in program history the Gators won as many games. In addition, White's two-season tally of 48 wins ranked as the fourth-most in SEC history. While leading the Gators to a successful campaign on the floor, White and his staff also put together a 2017 recruiting class ranked ninth nationally by ESPN that included three top-10 prospects.

In 2017-18, Florida tied for the most wins over top-25 teams nationally, knocking off six ranked foes. The Gators followed that with a late-season surge in 2018-19. After starting 12-11, Florida finished 20-16 and upset a pair of ranked foes in postseason play – No. 9 LSU in the SEC Tournament and No. 20 Nevada in the NCAA Tournament.

White collected his 100th win at Florida during the 2019-20 season. His pace of 158 games to reach that milestone was second-fastest in program history only to Billy Donovan's 154 contests. The Gators were denied a fourth-straight NCAA bid due to the COVID-19 pandemic, but they quickly continued their streak of reaching – and winning – during "March Madness" in 2021. Florida's NCAA bid in 2021 was even more impressive considering Keyontae Johnson, the Preseason SEC Player of the Year, suffered a medical emergency in the fourth game of the season and did not return to action.

A RECORD-SETTING PACE AT LOUISIANA TECH

At Louisiana Tech, White's produced the best winning percentage (.716) of any coach in the program's history as he led the Bulldogs to the Western Athletic Conference regular-season crown in 2013 before winning back-to-back Conference USA titles in 2014 and 2015. The Bulldogs reached the NIT in each of those campaigns and advanced to the quarterfinals in 2014 and 2015. In NIT play, Louisiana Tech recorded a trio of impressive road victories, toppling Florida State in 2013, Georgia in 2014 and Texas A&M in 2015.

White was named WAC Coach of the Year in 2013 and Conference USA Coach of the Year in 2015. He coached the 2015 C-USA Player of the Year, two WAC Newcomers of the Year, the 2014 C-USA Sixth Man of the Year and the 2014 C-USA Defensive Player of the Year. In addition, four Bulldogs combined to earn nine All-Conference certificates during that span.

White's most impressive coaching effort in Ruston may have been with his first team. Louisiana Tech started 8-10 before going 10-6 the rest of the way and advancing to the championship game of the WAC Tournament. The Bulldogs then went 83-24 over the next three seasons under White.

FROM PRO PLAYER TO STUDENT TO ASSISTANT COACH

White was a four-year starter at Ole Miss and helped the Rebels to a pair of SEC West titles, three NCAA Tournament appearances and the school's first-ever "March Madness" victory. White excelled off the court as well, earning a spot on two SEC Academic Honor Rolls and being named to the 1999 SEC Good Works Team.

After being invited to the Utah Jazz's summer training camp, White spent the 1999-2000 season playing professionally for the IBL's New Mexico Slam and in England before returning to Ole Miss in the spring of 2000 to complete his B.A. in business. The day after his last Final Exam, White made the four-hour drive from Oxford to Jacksonville, Ala., to begin his coaching career at Jacksonville State the next day – literally – welcoming recruits to campus.

White spent four years at Jacksonville State and helped the Gamecocks secure their first-ever 20-win season in 2003. He then returned to his alma mater and spent seven successful seasons while developing a reputation as one of the nation's top assistant coaches. White helped the Rebels to four NIT berths, including two runs to the NIT Final Four, and SEC West titles in 2007 and 2010.

BORN AND MARRIED INTO ATHLETIC FAMILIES

Though he was born in Dunedin, Fla., White lived all around the U.S. as his father's career in athletic administration progressed. His dad, Kevin, was the Athletic Director at Duke from 2008 until he retired at the end of August 2021 Previously, Kevin was AD at Loras College (1982-87), Maine (1987-91), Tulane (1991-96), Arizona State (1996-2000) and Notre Dame (2000-08).

Both of Mike's brothers and one of his sisters are also in college athletics.

His brother Danny became the AD at Tennessee in 2021 after serving in the same role at Buffalo from 2012-15 and UCF from 2015-21. He played basketball at Towson and Notre Dame.

His brother Brian has been the AD at Florida Atlantic since 2018. He was Deputy AD for external relations at Missouri before moving to Boca Raton.

His sister Mariah (Chappell), who swam collegiately at Duke, was Assistant AD for Administration at SMU, where she worked from 2017-23.

White is married to the former Kira Zschau, who was an All-SEC volleyball player at Ole Miss and also has a law degree from Ole Miss. They have five children – two daughters, Rylee and Maggie; twin boys, Collin and Keegan; and another son, Dillon.

ANTONIO REYNOLDS DEAN

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH • 2ND SEASON • RHODE ISLAND '99

Atlanta native Antonio Reynolds Dean was named Associate Head Coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on April 12, 2022.

From his time as a standout post player at one of Georgia's premier high school programs to the anchor of the winningest class in his college alma mater's history to stops throughout his coaching career, Reynolds Dean's career has consistently featured winning teams and postseason play.

Dean spent five seasons at Clemson from 2017-22, helping the Tigers to a pair of NCAA Tournament bids and an NIT appearance. He also helped coach Rhode Island to an NCAA Tournament bid in 2017 and Northeastern to a pair of NIT invites in 2010 and 2013.

In his first season at Clemson, the Tigers equaled the school record for victories, posting a 25-10 mark and advancing to the "Sweet 16" round of the 2018 NCAA Tournament for the first time in more than two decades. Clemson reached the NIT's round of 16 and finished 20-14 in 2019, just the sixth time in school history the Tigers recorded back-to-back 20-win campaigns. Clemson earned another invitation to "March Madness" in 2021 when the Tigers tied for fifth in the ACC standings.

Individually, the Tigers' post players thrived under Reynolds Dean. In 2020, Aamir Simms averaged career highs and team bests of 13.0 points and 7.2 rebounds and also led the Tigers in assists and blocks. He repeated leading Clemson in points (13.4 ppg), rebounds (6.4 rpg) and assists – the only player ever in ACC history to do so twice – in 2021. Elijah Thomas was named to the ACC's All-Defensive team in 2018 and 2019. P.J. Hall upped his scoring average from 3.5 ppg as a freshman to 15.5 ppg as a sophomore in 2021-22.

Reynolds Dean spent two years as an assistant coach at Rhode Island, where he also was one of the Rams' greatest players ever. In his final season on the staff, the Rams finished 25-10 overall and won the Atlantic-10 Tournament title, their first since his Reynolds Dean's senior year in 1999. The Rams then defeated Creighton in the NCAA Tournament before falling to Oregon, an eventual Final Four participant, 75-72 in the round of 32.

While Reynolds Dean was at Rhode Island, he worked with Hassan Martin, the A-10 Defensive Player of the Year in both 2016 and 2017.

Prior to his stint at Rhode Island, Reynolds Dean was an assistant coach at the College of Charleston for the 2014-15 season and at Northeastern for five campaigns from 2009-14. During his tenure with the Huskies, Reynolds Dean helped lead Northeastern to the 2013 CAA regular-season title and bids to the 2010 and 2013 NITs. He spent the 2008-09 campaign at Fairfield as the Director of Basketball Operations.

As a player, Reynolds Dean was a two-time all-state performer at Atlanta's Frederick Douglass High. He averaged a double-double during each of those seasons, scoring 24.6 points and 15.5 rebounds as a senior after contributing 23.0 points and 13.0 boards as a junior.

Reynolds Dean enjoyed a standout career at Rhode Island, where he was the 1996 Atlantic 10 Rookie of the Year and an All-Atlantic 10 selection in 1999. He helped lead the Rams to 85 wins over four seasons, including a then-school record 25 victories in 1998. Rhode Island earned three NCAA Tournament bids during his career, highlighted by a trip to the 1998 "Elite Eight."

Reynolds Dean became just the third player in school history to record 1,000 points and rebounds. Among career leaders, he wrapped up his eligibility as the school record holder for games played (131) and also ranked No. 9 in points (1,576), No. 3 in rebounds (1,028) and No. 2 in blocks (235).

A 2015 inductee into the URI Athletic Hall of Fame, Reynolds Dean is the only person in Rhode Island men's basketball history to play on and coach for an Atlantic 10 Championship team.

Professionally, Reynolds Dean averaged 18.7 points and a league-leading 12.2 rebounds with the Dakota Wizards of the International Basketball League (IBL) in 1999-2000. After being named the IBL's Rookie of the Year in 2000, he played eight seasons overseas in Spain and Argentina.

Reynolds Dean earned a bachelor's degree in Education with an emphasis in Human Development and Family Studies from Rhode Island in 1999. In 2012, he added a master's in Sports Leadership from Northeastern.

Reynolds Dean is married for the former Donna Carr, who played volleyball for Georgia in the 1990s. He is the proud father of two daughters, Jasmine and Naomi.

Erik Pastrana (pronounced puh-strah-nuh) was named an assistant coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on March 28, 2022.

"Erik is exceptional with his interrelational skills and his ability to connect young men," head coach Mike White said. "He's got a great work ethic with regards to recruiting and skill development."

Pastrana spent the 2021-22 season as a member of White's staff at Florida and also has successful Division I coaching stints at Oklahoma State, Florida Atlantic, Florida International and Stephen F. Austin.

"I am beyond excited to join Coach White at the University of Georgia," Pastrana said. "I share the same vision as Coach White in seeing the limitless potential of Georgia Basketball. Now, it's time to get to work and build something special that Georgia fans everywhere can be proud of."

Pastrana helped the Gators post a 20-14 record and reach the second round of the 2022 NIT.

Pastrana spent the two seasons prior to that as an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State. He helped the Cowboys sign the No. 4 recruiting class in 2020 that included Cade Cunningham, the 2021 Big 12 Player of the Year and a first-team All-American who went on to become the No. 1 overall pick in the 2021 NBA Draft.

In 2021, the Cowboys advanced to the finals of the Big 12 Tournament, earned a No. 4 seed in the NCAA Tournament and ended the year ranked No. 11 by the Associated Press – all firsts since 2005. Oklahoma State's first-round win in the NCAA Tournament was its first since 2009.

Prior to his stint in Stillwater, Pastrana coached at three schools in Florida, his home state.

In 2018-19, he was an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic working under first-year head coach Dusty May, one of three former Mike White assistants at Florida who are now Division I head coaches.

Pastrana was head coach at Daytona State College for the 2017-18 season, where he led the Falcons to a 19-12 record and had four players named to the Mid-Florida All-Conference Team.

A Miami native and Cuban American who is a member of the Latino Association of Basketball Coaches, Pastrana spent the 2016-17 campaign in his hometown as an assistant coach at FIU.

Pastrana also was an assistant coach for three seasons at Stephen F. Austin. During his tenure, the Lumberjacks won three consecutive Southland Conference Championships, produced three straight Southland Players of the Year and earned NCAA Tournament victories over VCU in 2014 and West Virginia in 2016. The 89 wins that staff accrued tied for the most by any coaching staff in its first three campaigns in NCAA history.

Pastrana began his career as a graduate assistant under Frank Martin at Kansas State from 2007-09. While at K-State, the Wildcats won 21 games each season, earned a pair of postseason bids, notched their first NCAA Tournament win in a decade in 2008 and saw freshman Michael Beasley selected with the No. 2 overall pick in the 2008 NBA Draft.

Following his experience with the Wildcats, Pastrana worked as an assistant coach at Labette Community College in Parsons, Kans., and Northwest Florida State College in Niceville, Fla. At NWFSC, Pastrana helped lead the Raiders to a 30-4 record and an appearance in the NJCAA National Championship game.

On top of his collegiate experience, Pastrana has also coached two highly respected AAU programs, the Florida Rams and KC Run GMC.

Pastrana earned a bachelor's degree in history from Florida State in 2007 and a master's degree in counseling and student development from Kansas State in 2009.

AKEEM MISKDEEN

ASSISTANT COACH • 2ND SEASON • QUEENS '08

Akeem Miskdeen (pronounced mis-cuh-deen) was named as assistant basketball coach for the Georgia Bulldogs on March 25, 2022.

Miskdeen arrived in Athens with 13 seasons of coaching experience after successful stints at Florida, Florida Atlantic, Kent State and Hampton. He helped each of the aforementioned schools reach postseason competition. All told, Miskdeen's teams have earned postseason bids in seven of 12 opportunities to do so, including six of the last eight campaigns.

"Akeem demonstrates all of the values that you look for in someone you want to work with," head coach Mike White said. "He's a great human being, relentless worker, good coach and recruiter but most of all a tremendous mentor to young men."

"My family and I are extrexmely grateful and excited to join Coach White at the University of Georgia," Miskdeen said. "I'm looking forward to helping build something special that our student-athletes, student body, alums, fans and the Athens community will be proud of."

Miskdeen spent last season at Florida with White, where the Gators finished 20-14 and reached the second round of the NIT.

Miskdeen was an assistant coach at Florida Atlantic for three seasons from 2018-21. He helped lead the Owls to three-consecutive winning records, a feat FAU had accomplished just once before in program history (1989-92). In 2019, the Owls reached the CIT, their first postseason appearance in eight years, and senior guard Anthony Adger earned All-Conference USA honors after increasing his scoring by 9.7 points per game from the previous season. Miskdeen also served as acting head coach for two games during the 2020-21 season while head coach Dusty May was sidelined due to health and safety protocols.

Prior to his tenure in Boca Raton, Miskdeen helped coach teams to three straight NCAA Tournament bids while at Hampton (2015 and 2016) and Kent State (2017).

Kent State recorded 39 wins during Miskdeen's two years with the Golden Flashes. In his initial season, he played a vital role in the breakout campaign of Jaylin Walker, who more than doubled his scoring average to 15.8 points per game and posted a 30-point performance in the 2017 MAC Championship game to earn tourney MVP honors. The following year, Miskdeen worked extensively with Jalen Avery, who led the nation in assist to turnover ratio.

Miskdeen came to Kent State after spending five seasons at Hampton from 2011-16, joining the staff as an assistant coach before being promoted to associate head coach after two campaigns. He was also the Pirates' recruiting coordinator and played a key role in recruiting first-team All-MEAC guards Quinton Chievous and Reginald Johnson, Jr. from his hometown of Chicago.

Miskdeen helped guide the Pirates to postseason bids in each of his final three seasons, including back-to-back NCAA Tournaments. In 2015, Hampton was the sixth seed in the MEAC Tournament but won four games in six days to secure a "March Madness" bid. The Pirates then upset Manhattan in a "First Four" match-up in Dayton for the program's second-ever NCAA Tournament victory. In 2016, Hampton finished 21-11, earning its first regular-season MEAC title since 2002 and capturing a second-straight conference tourney title before falling to Virginia in the NCAA Tournament's round of 64.

In addition, Miskdeen spent the 2008-09 season as Hampton's director of basketball operations before one-year stops at Mount Olive College and Wingate University, Division-II schools in North Carolina. In 2010, Miskdeen helped guide Mount Olive to a 25-6 finish and an NCAA Tournament bid.

As a student-athlete, Miskdeen spent two years at Laramie County (Wyo.) Community College from 2004-06 before transferring to Queens University in Charlotte, N.C. from 2006-08. Miskdeen served as team captain both years at Laramie, and he finsished his career as the school's all-time assists leader. At Queens, Miskdeen was a two-time Defensive MVP and led Queens to back-to-back NCAA Division II Tournament appearances.

Miskdeen is a 2008 graduate of Queens with a bachelor of arts in Corporate Communication and earned a master's in Sports Administration from Hampton in 2016. Miskdeen is married to the former Lasherra Joyner. They are proud parents of a daughter, Skylar.

Patrick Blake joined the Georgia Bulldogs in the summer of 2023 as an assistant coach after enjoying success at every stop of his 13-year college coaching career.

Most recently, Blake served as an assistant coach at Eastern Kentucky from 2019-23 and at Coastal Carolina from 2015-19. During his tenure, both programs established their single-season records for points scored. Blake also enjoyed a stellar run at Chipola College, including leading the Indians to the Elite Eight of the 2014 NJCAA Division I Tournament.

Blake was an extremely successful recruiter who helped Eastern Kentucky become one of the nation's highest scoring teams over the past three seasons. The Colonels paced their conference in scoring offense in each of those years, finishing eighth nationally in 2020-21 (81.8 ppg) in EKU's final season in the Ohio Valley Conference. Eastern Kentucky led the Atlantic Sun offensively in both 2021-22 (79.3 ppg) and 2022-23 (78.6 ppg).

Blake played an integral role in Eastern Kentucky signing its highest rated group of recruits in the internet age in 2022. That class of Colonels ranked No. 65 nationally by 247Sports, higher than no less than eight power conference programs. The group included the EKU's first-ever ESPN four-star prospect and the program's first Kentucky Mr. Basketball since 1980.

The scoring and recruiting translated into winning at a high level for the Colonels. Eastern Kentucky led all Division I men's basketball teams in Kentucky with 23 victories in 2022-23. In 2020-21, the Colonels notched 22 Ws.

During Blake's four seasons in Richmond, the Colonels reached the conference tournament semifinals three times.

Last season's performance was especially gratifying after the Colonels were picked to finish 10th in the ASUN. Eastern Kentucky went on to reach the championship game of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), the program's first appearance in a postseason national tournament title game ever and the first time in 78 years that EKU won three games in a national tourney. In the process, the Colonels broke 19 school records, including posting their most points (2909), field goals made (1098) and blocks (176) in a season.

Blake also spent four seasons at Coastal Carolina, helping the Chanticleers to a trio of postseason bids and an appearance in the CBI's championship series in 2016.

In Blake's first season in Conway, Coastal Carolina finished 21-12, earned the program's first national postseason victory and went on to reach the CollegeInsider.com Tournament (CIT) semifinals. The following year, the Chanticleers advanced to the CBI's championship series before falling to Wyoming. Blake also helped Coastal Carolina back to the 2019 CBI, where the Chanticleers stunned West Virginia, 109-91, in Morgantown.

Blake's first full-time coaching stint was at Chipola College in Marianna, Fla., where he served as an assistant coach for two seasons before being promoted to head coach. In his three campaigns as head coach, Blake compiled a record of 62-30 and was named the 2014 Panhandle Conference and State Coach of the Year.

The Indians were a combined 46-10 with Blake as an assistant coach. In his first season as head coach, Chipola finished 26-5 and reached the semifinals of the Florida College System Activities Association (FCSAA) Tournament. The following winter, the Indians finished 26-6 and won both the Panhandle Conference regular-season title and the FCSAA Tournament. Chipola was the No. 3 seed in the NJCAA Tournament and reached the quarterfinals before falling to Jones County (Miss.) College, the eventual national champions. All five starting sophomores from the 2014 team signed Division I scholarships.

Blake was a graduate assistant at Ole Miss from 2008-10 while Mike White was an assistant coach on the staff. That stint included a 23-4 finish by the Rebels in 2010 when they shared the SEC West Division title and reached the semifinals of the NIT.

Blake graduated from Louisville in 2009 with a bachelor's in Business Marketing. He was a student manager for the Cardinals for four seasons when they reached the NCAA Final Four in 2005, the NIT semifinals in 2006, the NCAA Round of 32 in 2007 and the NCAA Elite Eight in 2008.

A native of Evansville, Ind., Blake is married to the former Diana Truong. The couple has two sons, Reilly (2) and Brady (1).

BEN GONZALEZ

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
2ND SEASON • FLORIDA '17

Ben Gonzalez was named the Director of Operations for Georgia Basketball in April 2022.

Gonzalez arrived in Athens after spending the past four seasons in the same role at Florida Atlantic. He also was an undergraduate and graduate manager at Florida for three years during head coach Mike White's first three seasons with the Gators from 2015-18.

"I'm looking forward to working with Ben again," White said. "He was a tremendous student manager for us at UF and enjoyed breakthrough success at FAU. He's very driven and intense in his tasks."

"I am very honored and excited to be able to work for Coach White again," Gonzalez said. "I think of Coach White and many others on our staff as family, and I am grateful to be working with such high-quality people."

Gonzalez joined the FAU staff in 2018 shortly after the introduction of head coach Dusty May, one of three former White assistants at Florida who are now Division I head coaches. Gonzalez's responsibilities at Georgia mirror his duties the Owls, where he managed the team's budget and travel, developed and organized itineraries for recruiting official visits and recruited and developed the team's student managers. In addition, he played a major role in the staging of summer team and individual camps.

While a student at Florida, Gonzalez worked with White during his first three seasons as the Gators' head coach. He spent two years as an undergraduate manager before serving as a graduate manager for the 2017-18 campaign. During that time, Florida recorded 68 wins, advancing to the 2016 NIT quarterfinals, the 2017 NCAA "Elite Eight" and the 2018 NCAA round of 32.

Gonzalez also was active in the UF Athletic Association's "Blue Shirt" marketing organization in 2014 and 2015. He aided with staging of ESPN's College GameDay and the Gators' "Link to Pink" breast cancer awareness initiative. Gonzalez also took part in the group's football project team that was tasked with developing ideas to enhance fan experience and spark excitement at the Gators' games

Since 2017, Gonzalez has been involved with the Uncommon Sports Group, a faith-based organization founded by former student managers designed to develop leaders in the sports industry. His activities include traveling to Liberia to help lead a three-week sports camp, representing the group at the men's Final Four to attract new members and leading a tour of FAU Athletics facilities for 15 participants selected for an "Impact Trip."

A native of Tampa, Fla., Gonzalez has two degrees from Florida. He earned his bachelor's in Sport Management in three years in 2017 and added a master's in Sport Management a year later. He married the former Alexandra "Alex" Emenecker in June 2022.

CHARLES MANN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL
2ND SEASON • GEORGIA '16

Charles Mann, one of the most successful players in Georgia history, returned to his alma mater as the Bulldogs' Director of Recruiting in April 2022.

"Charles knows what it takes to be a successful student-athlete at this level," head coach Mike White said. "He is extremely proud to be a Georgia Bulldog and in many ways has lived the experience we want for all of our players. I'm confident he'll make a major impact within our program."

Mann played in 132 games between 2012-16, the most ever by a four-year player, and is one of only 12 Bulldogs ever to play on three 20-win teams.

"It's a surreal feeling that still seems like a dream," Mann said. "Coming home means more than anything. It's not just the next job – it's my dream job."

Mann spent the three seasons at Army and VCU before coming to Athens.

In 2021-22, Mann served as an assistant coach for the Cadets, who finished 15-16. He aided the development of Jalen Rucker, who averaged ranked fourth in the Patriot League in scoring (17.1 ppg), as well as second in 3-pointers, seventh in free throw percentage and ninth in assists.

Mann was a graduate assistant at VCU for two seasons, helping the Rams earn an at-large bid to the 2021 NCAA Tournament after finishing second in the Atlantic-10 and reaching the championship game of the A-10 Tournament.

Mann was selected by the Oklahoma City Blue in the second round of the 2016 NBA G-League Draft. He played in Canada in 2016-17 and averaged 15.0 points for Cape Breton before contributing 15.9 points for AB Contern in Luxembourg in 2017-18.

At Georgia, Mann started 106 of 132 games, including 98 of 100 over his final three seasons. He was named to the SEC's All-Freshman team in 2013 and was tabbed second-team All-SEC by league coaches in 2014.

Mann owns the Bulldogs' career records for free throws made (618) and attempted (896). He ranks second in SEC history in trips to the charity stripe – behind only "Pistol" Pete Maravich. Among Georgia's career leaders, Mann finished ranked No. 13 in scoring (1,411 points) and No. 5 in assists (400). He helped Georgia reach postseason play three times, with a trip to the 2015 NCAA Tourney between bids to the 2014 and 2016 NITs, and averaged 19.4 points over six NCAA and NIT contests.

Originally from Queens, N.Y., Mann was a three-time All-State performer in high school, earning second-team honors in Class 5A as a senior at Milton after securing honorable mention status in Class 4A as a sophomore and junior at Union Grove. As a senior, he helped Milton capture the 2012 Georgia 5A state title and earn a consensus top-10 finish nationally.

Mann earned his bachelor's degree in Housing Management and Policy from Georgia in 2016 and added a master's in Education for Sports Leadership from VCU in 2021.

RYAN McCLOSKEY

DIRECTOR OF VIDEO & ANALYTICS
1ST SEASON • FLORIDA '16

Ryan McCloskey joined the Georgia Basketball staff in the summer of 2023 as the Bulldogs' Director of Video and Analytics. Prior to arriving in Athens, McCloskey garnered a wealth of experience during a combined decade of working at Rhode Island and Florida, as well as with USA Basketball.

McCloskey spent five seasons on the staff at Rhode Island from 2018-23. He served in a variety of roles during his tenure with the Rams. After originally joining the staff as video coordinator, McCloskey was promoted after one season to director of operations from 2019-21. He was again promoted to special assistant to the head coach during the 2021-22 campaign before serving as assistant director of operations/video coordinator for the Rams in 2022-23.

Rhode Island's best season during McCloskey's time in Kingston was in 2019-20 when the Rams finished 21-9. Rhode Island entered the Atlantic 10 Tournament as the No. 3 seed and on the bubble for the NCAA Tournament before postseason play was cancelled with the onset of the COVID-19 pandemic.

McCloskey also spent five seasons working with the Florida Gators, two years under Billy Donovan (2013-15) and three with Mike White (2015-18). McCloskey was an undergraduate manager assisting with day-to-day video operations and projects for three seasons before serving as a graduate assistant for two years, where he assisted with day-to-day operations and player development.

Florida averaged 24.2 wins per season during McCloskey's five campaigns with the Gators. During 2013-14, Florida finished 36-3, including a 30-game winning streak. The Gators captured both the SEC regular-season and SEC Tournament titles, were No. 1 overall seed in the NCAA Tournament and advanced to the Final Four in Indianapolis. Florida also reached the Elite Eight and Round of 32 during the 2017 and 2018 NCAA Tournaments, respectively, during McCloskey's time with the program.

McCloskey gained additional experience with USA Basketball during the summers of 2014 and 2015. He was part of the support staff for the 2014 U18 and 2015 U19 National Teams. The 2014 squad won the U18 FIBA Americas Championship in Colorado Springs, defeating its five opponents by an average of 54.8 points per game en route to qualifying for the 2015 FIBA U19 World Championship. The following summer, the Americans, led by Jalen Brunson and Jayson Tatum, won the Gold Medal at the World Championships in Heraklion, Greece, on the island of Crete.

McCloskey received two degrees from Florida, earning both his bachelor's and master's in Sport Management in 2016 and 2018, respectively. He is married to the former Amanda Peet.

COLLIN CRANE

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETIC PERFORMANCE
2ND SEASON • CARSON-NEWMAN '13

Collin Crane was named Director of Athletic Performance for Georgia Men's Basketball on May 12, 2022.

Crane sports 10 seasons of experience, including stints within the SEC at Mississippi State and Florida. During that span, teams with Crane on their strength and conditioning staff earned postseason bids in seven of nine possible years and averaged 22.8 wins per season.

Crane has spent the past five seasons at Mississippi State, helping the Bulldogs earn postseason bids each year possible. In addition, the Bulldogs were a lock for a postseason invitation in 2020 when they were an NCAA bubble team before the tournament was canceled. Three MSU players during Crane's tenure were on NBA rosters during the 2021-22 season – Reggie Perry (Portland Trail Blazers), Quinndary Weatherspoon (Golden State Warriors) and Robert Woodard II (San Antonio Spurs).

Crane was one of the first strength coaches to partner with Mississippi State's Athlete Engineering Program. The multidisciplinary research collaboration between the university's academic and athletic departments explores human performance, processes and analysis. Since the initiative started, Crane has co-authored multiple peer-reviewed studies on various topics which include force plate analysis and wearable technology in addition to basketball shoe design and assessment.

Prior to his tenure in Starkville, Crane worked at Chattanooga (2015-17), Missouri State (2014-15) and Florida (2012-14). In two seasons at Chattanooga, the Mocs compiled 48 victories, swept the Southern Conference regular-season and tournament titles and earned an NCAA Tournament bid in 2016. He worked with the men's basketball, tennis and golf programs at Missouri State in 2014-15 and also spent two seasons as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Florida from 2012-14. While in Gainesville, the Gators made runs to the 2013 Elite Eight and the 2014 Final Four, and Crane organized NBA Draft training regimens for standouts such as Bradley Beal, Chandler Parsons, Eric Murphy and Patric Young.

Crane played basketball at Carson-Newman University, where he was a four-year starter and three-time captain. Crane ranked fifth in career starts for the Eagles when he graduated. As a senior, Crane helped Carson-Newman to a 20-8 record, the program's first 20-win campaign in a decade. Following the season, Carson-Newman renamed the program's leadership honor the Collin Crane Leadership Award.

Crane earned his bachelor's in Exercise Science from Carson-Newman in 2013 and his master's in Food Science, Nutrition and Health Promotion from Mississippi State in 2020. Crane is married to the former Courtney Lawson. They have two children: a son, Carson, and a daughter, Miller.

LANCE SCHUEMANN

ASSOCIATE ATHLETIC TRAINER
6TH SEASON • FLORIDA '07

Lance Schuemann joined the UGA Athletic Association's Sports Medicine staff in July 2018 as an associate athletic trainer. His primary responsibilities include prevention, immediate care, management, treatment and rehabilitation of athletic injuries for the Georgia Basketball program.

Prior to joining the Georgia staff, Schuemann spent the previous five seasons as the athletic trainer for the men's basketball and women's golf programs at the University of Wyoming. His efforts in Laramie helped translate to an extremely successful run for the Cowboys on the hardwood. Wyoming averaged 20 wins per season and reached postseason play three times from 2013-18. Most notably, the Cowboys won the 2015 Mountain West Conference Tournament to secure an NCAA Tournament bid. They also won the 2017 College Basketball Invitational (CBI) title.

Schuemann was the athletic trainer for the men's basketball and women's tennis teams at Charleston Southern University for two seasons from 2011-13 before moving on to Wyoming.

Schuemann served as an intern athletic trainer at the University of Florida, his alma mater, during the 2010-11 academic year. He worked with the men's basketball and men's tennis programs, which reached the "Elite Eight" and Round of 16 of their respective NCAA Tournaments that year. In addition, Schuemann was an approved clinical instructor while in Gainesville.

From 2008-10, Schuemann was a graduate assistant athletic trainer at Valparaiso University. There his responsibilities were primarily with football and baseball. Before joining the Crusaders' staff, he also worked as an intern athletic trainer with the Florida Marlins during the spring of 2008.

A native of Palm Beach Gardens, Fla., Schuemann received his bachelor's degree in Athletic Training from Florida in Dec. 2007. He worked as a student athletic trainer for the Gators' men's basketball team that won the 2007 NCAA Championship. Schuemann also earned his master's in Sports Administration from Valparaiso in May 2010.

Schuemann's impressive list of certifications include: Corrective Exercise Specialist from the National Association of Sports Medicine (NASM), Board Certification from the National Athletic Trainer Association (NATA), CPR/AED from the American Red Cross and Level 1 status from the Titleist Performance Institute.

Schuemann married Tracy Campbell, the former athletic trainer for Vanderbilt Baseball, in October of 2021. In October 2023, Lance and Tracy became the doting parents over their first child, a daughter named Maeve.

CASEY REED

EXECUTIVE ASSISTANT • 2ND SEASON • FLORIDA '10

Casey Reed joined the Georgia staff as the Executive Assistant in May 2022 after spending a decade working within the spirit programs at Florida.

Reed handles a vast list of job responsibilities for the Bulldogs, managing different aspects of the program's office, facility, travel and budget needs. In addition, she also coordinates Georgia Basketball's outreach efforts within the Athletic Association, the Athens community and with former players; serves as a liaison to the promotions, marketing and fan engagement departments; and aids with the Ultimate Guide to Achievement (UGA) initiative to provide players with off-court development opportunities.

From 2012-22, Reed served as the coordinator for Florida's Dazzlers dance team and mascots. She managed all travel, equipment purchasing and scholarship distribution for the Gators' spirit squads and coordinated more than 300 internal and external appearance requests for the program. She also served as liaison between the men's basketball program and the Tip Off Club, its support group.

Reed earned both her bachelor's and master's degrees in Entomology from Florida in 2010 and 2014, respectively. She was a member of the Dazzlers Dance Team throughout her four years as an undergraduate, serving as the team's co-captain from 2007-09 and captain from 2009-10.

JORDAN LANGE

DIR. OF CREATIVE SERVICES • 2ND SEASON • UM-FLINT '12

Jordan Lange joined the UGA Athletic Association as Director of Creative Services and Social Media for Georgia Basketball in the summer of 2021. He arrived in Athens after previous stints at Oregon State and Wyoming.

From 2019-21, Lange was the director of graphic design for Oregon State's football program. He created and maintained brand guidelines, while developing a unique and consistent brand for the Beavers. Lange worked with videographers, photographers and social media team to tell story of OSU football. Those efforts featured personalized recruiting campaigns, as well as creating all other internal and external materials.

Lange was director of graphic design at Wyoming from 2018-19. There he coordinated and monitored projects within the design team to create engaging content for Wyoming's 13 athletic programs, including social media content, printed materials and recruiting graphics. Lange also developed and managed the athletic association's first project management system for graphics.

Prior to working in college athletics, Lange was a senior graphic designer for Diplomat Specialty Pharmacy in Flint, Mich., from 2016-18.

A native of Davison, Mich., Lange graduated from the University of Michigan-Flint with a bachelor's degree in Graphic Design in 2012.

Jordan and his wife, Kayla, have three sons – Bentley, Blaine and Beau.

OTHMANE ELYAALAOUI

ASSISTANT VIDEO COORDINATOR • GEORGIA '23

Othmane Elyaalaoui (pronounced Oth-man El-yuh-lowh-ee) is in his second season with Georgia Basketball and is serving as assistant video coordinator during the 2023-24 campaign.

From 2019-21, Elyaalaoui worked with TIBU Basketball Academy in his hometown of Casablanca, Morocco. He joined the organization as an intern in July 2019 before serving as basketball operations coordinator from September 2019 until starting graduate school at UGA. Elyaalaoui organized a U14, U16 and U20 Moroccan Basketball Challenge Tour in 2020 and helped manage TIBU's U14 International Tournament featuring teams from France, Germany, Guinea, Morocco, Netherlands and Spain in 2021.

Elyaalaoui earned his bachelor's in Business and Management Studies with Finance from Cardiff Metropolitan University in 2019. There, he founded and was a three-year team captain of CMU's basketball team, also serving as the program's basketball operations manager.

While attending Georgia, Elyaalaoui served as a research assistant, intramural sports official and event management volunteer as a student in Athens. He is on track to secure his master's degree in Sport Management and Policy from UGA in May 2023. Othmane is the son of Jamal and Nadia Elyaalaoui and has an older brother, Youssef.

REESE BELL

GRADUATE MANAGER • GEORGIA '22

Reese Bell is in his fourth season working with Georgia Basketball and his second in a graduate assistant role.

A native of Dawson, Ga., Bell was a two-sport standout at Terrell Academy as a prep athlete. He was a four-year letterwinner in both basketball and football and started at shooting guard and quarterback as a junior and a senior. He was named All-State and All-Region in football as a senior after passing for 2,319 yards, rushing for 384 yards and scoring nine touchdowns while leading the Eagles to the semifinals of the GISA Class AA state tournament. Bell also earned All-Region honors in basketball.

Bell began his collegiate career at Georgia Southern before transferring to the University of North Georgia's Oconee Campus. He transferred to UGA in 2019 and served as a manager for the Bulldogs during the 2019-20 season. After spending a year away from the program, he returned as a manager for the 2021-22 campaign and transitioned into his current role as a graduate manager last summer.

Bell received his bachelor's degree in Sport Management and Policy from Georgia in 2022 and is currently pursuing a master's degree in Sport Management and Policy.

JUSTIN COUSIN

GRADUATE MANAGER • RADFORD '18

Justin Cousin joined the Georgia staff in June of 2022 after serving in a similar role at Radford, his alma mater, during the 2021-22 campaign.

Cousin was a four-year letterwinner for the Highlanders from 2013-18 and wrapped up his career ranked seventh in program history in games played with 127 outings. He was a key piece of the 2018 Big South Championship squad that recorded the first NCAA Tournament victory in school history. The son of former Highlander standout Rod Cousin, his best season came as a junior in 2016-17 when he started all 32 games and contributed 11.0 points, 2.5 rebounds and 2.0 assists per game.

After graduating from Radford in 2018 with a bachelor's degree in Business Management, Cousin played professionally for the Taranaki Airs in New Plymouth, New Zealand during 2018-19. He averaged 11.3 points and was named Team Man of the Year, an award voted on by coaches and teammates for exemplifying the qualities of a team leader. While in New Zealand, he also served as a volunteer youth coach at Stratford Primary School.

Cousin then returned to his hometown of Burlington, N.C., to work as a counselor for at-risk youths in the area. He also served as a 5th grade teacher and middle school basketball coach at Positive Day School. Cousin is pursuing a master's in Nonprofit Management and Leadership.

KENNY GAINES

GRADUATE MANAGER • GEORGIA '16

Kenny Gaines returned to his alma mater as a graduate manager in the summer of 2022. Gaines was an electrifying guard for the Bulldogs from 2012-16 and helped lead Georgia to three consecutive 20-win seasons for only the second time in the program's 100-plus seasons of competition.

A Parade All-American honors and the 2012 Georgia Class A Player of the Year at Whitefield Academy, Gaines came off the bench as a freshman before starting 96 of 98 games during his sophomore, junior and senior campaigns.

Gaines finished his career ranked No. 19 among Georgia's career scoring leaders with 1,324 points, as well as No. 4 in 3-pointers (213), No. 4 in 3-point attempts (569) and No. 7 in 3-point percentage (.374). He also is third among UGA's single-season 3-pointer leaders, connecting on 85 during his senior year. Gaines also set the school record for scoring the highest percentage of points by a Bulldog in a game when he accounted for 35 of Georgia's 63 points (55.6 percent) in a 63-52 victory over Murray State on Nov. 20, 2016.

Gaines earned his bachelor's degree in Housing Management and Policy from Georgia in 2016. His professional career that included stints with the Houston Rockets in the NBA Summer League and in Europe in France, Italy and Lithuania. Gaines, whose son Christian was born in 2021, is pursuing his master's in Nonprofit Management and Leadership.

DEE MITCHELL

GRADUATE MANAGER • OKLAHOMA STATE '22

Dee Mitchell, a three-year letterwinner for the Oklahoma State Cowboys, is in his second season as a graduate manager with the Bulldogs.

Mitchell joined the Cowboys' roster as a walk-on in January 2019 and played in five games that season, highlighted by a clutch 3-pointer at No. 11 Texas Tech to help force overtime. After playing in 19 contests in 2019-20, including a pair of starts against Houston and Minnesota, he played in six games during Oklahoma State's 21-9 campaign in 2020-21 which culminated with an NCAA bid and the Cowboys being ranked No. 11 in the final AP poll.

Mitchell drew national attention in January 2021 when head coach Mike Boynton surprised him with the news that he was going to be placed on scholarship while he was at his full-time job at Walmart.

Mitchell was the 2018 District 16-3A MVP at Jefferson (Texas) High School after averaging 20.5 points, 4.7 rebounds and 2.7 steals. He helped the Bulldogs compile a combined 51-14 record and back-to-back perfect 14-0 district marks as a junior and a senior. Mitchell also was a first-team all-district performer in football with 97 tackles and six interceptions as a senior.

Mitchell earned his bachelor's degree in Sports & Coaching Science from Oklahoma State in 2022 and is pursuing a master's in Kinesiology (Sport Pedagogy) at Georgia.

JAMIE HEGLUND

TICKET OPERATIONS

Jamie Heglund joined the UGA Athletic Association's ticket office in July of 2016 and was promoted four times over a span of four years to his current position as Director of Ticket Operations. He originally served as a Ticket Office Associate from July 2016 until moving to Assistant Director of Ticket Operations in June 2018. Heglund was promoted again to Associate Director in October 2021 and Director in June 2022.

Heglund's responsibilities include the management of the ticket office's day-to-day operations. He coordinates strategies to improve the Athletic Association's sales, distribution, resolution and technology integration and works with senior administration to make data-driven decisions for UGA's ticketed sports. Heglund serves as the liaison between the ticket office and other departments within the Athletic Association, including collaborating with the Georgia Bulldog Club annual fund team to maximize donor engagement.

A native of nearby Bethlehem, Heglund received his bachelor's degree in Business Administration in Sports Management in May 2015 from Shorter University, where he was a four-year letterwinner on the men's tennis team. He began graduate school at UGA that fall and earned his master's in Sport Management and Policy in December 2016 several months after he began his tenure within the Athletic Association.

STEVE FLIPPEN

COMPLIANCE

Steve Flippen returned to the UGA Athletic Association staff in October 2011 and currently serves as Associate Athletic Director for Compliance.

Flippen, who served as a graduate assistant/intern for the UGA compliance office from 1999-01, has two decades of experience at five different Division I schools.

Prior to Athens, Flippen served as Associate Director of Compliance at Georgia Tech. He spent more than six years at Virginia, serving as Director of Compliance for two and a half years and as Assistant Athletic Director for Compliance for four more years.

From 2003-04, Flippen was Director of Compliance and Student-Athlete Services at Winthrop. That followed a two-year stint as Compliance Coordinator at Northern Illinois from 2001-03.

Flippen earned his bachelor's in Physical Education and Sports Sciences with a specialization in Sports Administration from North Carolina in 1998 and his master's in Sports Management from UGA in 2000.

A native of Virginia, Flippen moved several times throughout his childhood. He is the son of Bill Flippen, a successful high school football coach in Virginia and North Carolina. Steve and his wife, the former Catherine Horton, have two daughters, Evelyn and McKinsey.

MIKE MOBLEY

SPORTS COMMUNICATIONS

Mike Mobley joined the Athletic Association staff in 1995 and was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director in 2021. His duties include managing communications for the men's basketball and women's golf programs, as well as assisting with football.

From 1995-2015, Mobley served as the SID for women's basketball. During his time as an undergraduate from 1985-89, he worked as the SID for both the track & field and volleyball programs.

Mobley currently serves as the sports information representative for all 14 league schools on the SEC Awards Committee, and he represented Georgia on the SEC's coordination of the 50th anniversary of Title IX.

Mobley will work his fifth Olympics in 2024. He served as Venue Press Chief for boxing in Atlanta in 1996. He will work as an Information/Liaison Manager for Olympic Broadcasting Services at his fourth Games in Paris, doing so for weightlifting in 2012 and handball in 2016, 2021 and 2024.

A native of nearby Winder, Mobley received a bachelor's degree in Broadcast Journalism from UGA in 1989. He is married to the former Sallie Hartnett, and they have two children: Kevin, a 2020 UGA grad and college counselor/assistant basketball coach at Whitefield Academy; and Caroline, a 2023 graduate of Furman who is currently a part of the Davidson Fellows.

CHAD PALMER

TEAM PHYSICIAN

Dr. Chad Palmer, who returned to his alma mater and joined the University of Georgia Health Center staff in April 2014, serves as a team physician for UGA Athletics. Dr. Palmer is in his eighth as the team physician for Georgia Basketball and also works with the women's soccer and baseball programs.

Dr. Palmer served as team physician for a number of colleges and high schools beginning July 2005. He completed a family medicine residency at the University of Tennessee-Chattanooga in 2008 and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Washington in 2009. From 2009-14, he worked for Northeast Georgia Physicians Group and was a team physician for the Atlanta Falcons, the University of North Georgia and Chestatee High School. Dr. Palmer also has special expertise and 14 years of experience working with diabetes and has worked with various community youth groups since 2001.

A native of Elberton, Ga., Dr. Palmer graduated from Elbert County Comprehensive High School in 1997. During his time as undergraduate at UGA, he served as a manager for the Georgia Football program for the 2000 and 2001 seasons. Dr. Palmer graduated from Georgia with a bachelor's degree in Biology in 2001 before attending Medical College of Georgia.

Dr. Palmer and his wife, the former Lindsey Ebel, have two sons – Wyatt and Chandler.

BRENTON SHIVER

FAN ENGAGEMENT

Brenton Shiver, who joined the Athletic Association staff on a full-time basis in 2007, was promoted to Director of Fan Engagement in 2015.

Shiver is in his fourth season coordinating efforts surrounding Georgia Basketball and also oversees gymnastics and golf.

During his time with the Bulldogs, Georgia has recorded two of the basketball program's top-4 total attendance records tallies ever – No. 1 164,071 in 2019-20 and No. 4 132,557 in 2021-22. During the 2019-20 campaign, UGA averaged 9,651 fans per game at Stegeman Coliseum, the second-highest mark in program history, and also welcomed a school single-season record 11 crowds topping the 10,000 plateau.

Shiver began working in promotions as an undergraduate in 2004. After receiving his bachelor's in Marketing from UGA in Dec. 2006, served as an intern beginning in Jan. 2007 before joining the staff full-time five months later in June.

In addition to his current responsibilities, Shiver worked with virtually every University of Georgia athletic program during his tenure as a student worker and full-time staffer with the Bulldogs.

Shiver, who earned a master's in Sport Management from UGA in 2015, married his wife, Stephanie, in 2011.

SAMANTHA SPURLOCK

ACADEMIC COUNSELING

Samantha Spurlock joined the UGA Athletic Association staff as an academic counselor in January of 2020 to work with the men's basketball and men's and women's cross country programs.

Spurlock arrived in Athens following stints at West Virginia and Marshall. She was an assistant director of student-athlete development at West Virginia from 2017-20, serving as academic advisor for the baseball, gymnastics and women's tennis programs. From 2014-17, Spurlock was an academic advisor for at Marshall and served as advisor for all 14 of the Thundering Herd's different Olympic sports during her tenure. She originally joined the Marshall staff as a graduate assistant for M Club & Big Green, the Herd's Scholarship Foundation, from 2012-14.

Spurlock was a four-year letterwinner for the Thundering Herd softball team. She earned both NFCA Scholar-Athlete and C-USA Commissioner's Honor Roll recognition. In 2012, Spurlock was named to the 2012 C-USA Championship All-Tournament Team. A native of Huntington, W. Va., she led Huntington High to back-to-back state titles in 2007 and 2008.

Spurlock earned a pair of degrees from Marshall, securing her bachelor's in Business Administration and Marketing in 2012 her master's in Sports Administration in 2014.

CAROLYN WALLACE

TICKET OPERATIONS

Carolyn Wallace joined the UGA staff as Associate Director of Event Management in 2017 and currently serves as Senior Associate Director of Event & Facility Operations. Wallace oversees event management for basketball and is facility manager for Stegeman Coliseum and its Training Facility.

Prior to arriving in Athens, Wallace served as event operations manager at Colorado State from 2015-16 where she oversaw gameday management of the women's soccer, women's basketball, track & field and women's tennis programs. At Wake Forest from 2014-15, she was gameday manager and budget manager for women's soccer, women's tennis and track & field. She also was tournament manager for the first round of the 2014 Men's Soccer NCAA Championship. Wallace coordinated event management for four sports and various special events at Villanova from 2013-14 and was gameday manager for five sports at Hartford in 2012-13.

Wallace earned bachelor's degrees from Randolph-Macon (business/economics in 2010) and Eastern Connecticut State (sport and leisure management in 2011). She was an Academic All-America swimmer for both schools. Wallace earned her master's in sport management from Springfield in 2013. Carolyn married Ben Wallace in July 2021. The couple welcomed a daughter, Emmalyn, in April 2023.

JOHN BATEMAN

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC DIRECTOR – MARKETING
MEN'S BASKETBALL SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

John Bateman, who with his combined experiences as a UGA student and full-time employee has been a member of the Athletic Association staff for more than three decades, was promoted to Assistant Athletic Director of Marketing in the summer of 2014 after serving eight years as Director of Marketing.

In addition to being the sport facilitator for men's basketball, Bateman is responsible for coordinating ticket sales plans, venue concessions and merchandise contracts, marketing and promotional activities on georgiadogs.com and gameday print operations. He is also the liaison between the Athletic Association and the Redcoat Marching Band and all other athletic bands.

Bateman joined the Georgia promotions office on a full-time basis in 1994 and served as Assistant Director for three years. He was promoted to Associate Director in 1997 before being named the Director in 2004. Bateman was promoted once again in 2014 to Assistant Athletic Director, and he also received oversight as the sport administrator for the men's basketball program at that time.

Bateman is a "double-dog" with two degrees from University of Georgia – a bachelor's in Business Administration in 1991 and master's Sport Management in 1993. As an undergraduate, he served as a manager for the men's basketball team, including UGA's 1990 SEC Championship squad. The Bulldogs reached postseason play during three of Bateman's four years with the team, including the 1987 and 2000 NCAA Tournaments and the 1988 NIT.

Bateman began his professional career by working as the championships and officiating assistant at the Southeastern Conference from 1993-94 before returning to his alma mater in 1994.

A native of Albany, Ga., Bateman is married to the former Jill Sirmans, a native of Valdosta, Ga. John is a huge fans of the Atlanta Braves and an avid walker/runner who has run the last 16 editions of the Peachtree Road Race. Jill recently retired after working for the UGA Foundation for 30 years. She was Director of Development with a fundraising focus on the Georgia Women Give initiative.

DARRICE GRIFFIN

SENIOR DEPUTY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
MEN'S BASKETBALL SPORT ADMINISTRATOR

Darrice Griffin was named Senior Deputy Director of Athletics on January 1, 2021, after serving as Deputy Director of Athletics of Administration at UGA since December 2017. Griffin's responsibilities have included the day-to-day oversight responsibilities for some internal operations including Human Resources and strategic organizational advancement of the Athletics Association. She also serves as the Deputy Title IX Coordinator and Sports Facilitator for several sports programs. In addition, Griffin represents the Athletics Association within various SEC and institutional leadership groups.

Griffin previously served as a senior member of the athletic administration at the University of Massachusetts from 2015-17. She served as Deputy Director of Athletics from July 2017-December 2017, after holding the position of Senior Associate Director of Athletics for Internal Operations for two years. Additionally, Griffin was also the department's Senior Woman Administrator during her entire tenure in Amherst.

As Deputy Director at UMass she oversaw day-to-day operations relating to student-athletes, facilities and competitions, while also serving on numerous campus committees and as the liaison with many campus constituents. Griffin had administrative oversight responsibilities for a number of Minutemen sports, including football, women's basketball, men's and women's lacrosse, field hockey and softball.

Prior to Amherst, Griffin spent the previous six years (2009-2015) at Columbia University, including the last four as Associate Athletics Director for Intercollegiate Sports Programs. With the Lions, Griffin had oversight for men's and women's basketball, men's and women's soccer, softball and baseball. She worked alongside the offices of admissions and financial aid, while also assisting in fundraising and development initiatives for both the athletic department at-large and her assigned sport programs. Griffin played a role in several student-athlete initiatives, including Columbia's The First-Year Transition Program and The Leaders for Life Program. Within the University itself, Griffin was an active member of the President's Advisory Committee on Sexual Assault, had a leadership role on the University Bystander Intervention Task Force and played a key role in the University-wide initiative Step-Up.

A native of Seagraves, Texas, Griffin was a standout basketball student-athlete at Texas Tech, graduating in 2007 with cum laude honors in Psychology. She was a four-time recipient of the Texas Tech Student-Athlete Merit Award, a two-time Academic All-Big 12 Conference honoree and was named an Arthur Ashe Sports Scholar in 2007. Griffin comes from an elite basketball family. Her mother, Tami Wilson, played at Texas Tech from 1990-92 and her sister, Teddy, also played for the Lady Raiders from 2005-08. Griffin was the 2004 Gatorade Player of the Year in Texas and also was an All-Texas First-Team selection and a McDonald's All-American.

JOSH BROOKS

J. REID PARKER DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS
LSU '02

J. Reid Parker Director of Athletics Josh Brooks – 2023 Sports Business Journal Athletic Director of the Year finalist – has led the UGA Athletic Association through historic success.

Georgia finished seventh in the 2023 LEARFIELD Directors' Cup, its best mark since 2005 and tying for the fourth-highest ranking in program history. Seventeen of the Bulldogs' athletic programs finished with a top-20 ranking, while nine ended the year in the top 10.

The Bulldogs became the first program to earn back-to-back College Football Playoff National Championships, while three of Georgia's athletic teams won SEC titles and five athletes won NCAA individual crowns during the 2022-23 athletics season.

Among notable achievements, both the women's soccer and volleyball programs earned bids to their respective NCAA Championships in the same year for the first time ever. Georgia's track and field programs posted four top-10 finishes at the indoor and outdoor championships, both tennis teams captured SEC titles, softball finished second in the SEC and both golf programs swept team and individual titles at their NCAA Regionals.

The Bulldogs also posted a record-breaking academic year, setting a new school-high mark with a 3.19 cumulative GPA in 2022-23, breaking the fall GPA record before earning the second-highest spring GPA in school history.

The Georgia Bulldog Club set new fundraising records in each of the last two years with $86.4 million raised in 2022 and $97.7 million in 2023.

Brooks has overseen substantial facility upgrades that include the brand-new Lindsey Hopkins Indoor Tennis Courts, improvements to the south side of Sanford Stadium, a $45 million renovation to Foley Field, a $38 million upgrade to the Jack Turner Softball Stadium, a new $1.8 million men's and women's basketball weight room as well as expansive updates to Stegeman Coliseum and a renovation project in the Butts-Mehre Heritage Hall.

Georgia also built a new, state-of-the-art track and field locker room and recently announced plans to construct a one-of-a-kind track facility which will include the only indoor track and field venue in the state of Georgia.

Brooks' tenure has also included impactful and significant coaching hires, with a pair of national champions in track and field's Caryl Smith Gilbert and soccer's Keidane McAlpine. In 2021, he hired Tony Baldwin (softball), Stefanie Williams Moreno (women's swimming & diving) Neil Versfeld (men's swimming and diving), Mike White (men's basketball), Katie Abrahamson-Henderson (women's basketball) and Wes Johnson (baseball).

A native of Hammond, La., Brooks' vision of competing for championships and postseason success and his passion for student-athletes began well before his time as Athletic Director.

Before returning to UGA in 2016 as Executive Associate Director of Athletics, Brooks served as Deputy Athletics Director at the University of Louisana Monroe from 2015-16 and Director of Athletics at Millsaps College from 2014-15. He also served in capacities as Director of Football Operations (2008-11) and Assistant and Associate Athletic Director for Internal Operations (2012-14) in his previous stint at UGA.

Brooks also served as director of football operations at the ULM beginning in 2004. He gained experience as a student at LSU, working as an equipment manager and a student assistant coach. During his four years at LSU, the Tigers participated in the 2000 Peach Bowl and 2002 Sugar Bowl and won the 2001 Southeastern Conference championship.

Brooks graduated from LSU ('02) with a degree in Kinesiology and completed his master's degree in Sport Management from UGA ('14). He and his wife, Lillie, have twin sons, Jackson and James, born in July of 2009 and a third son, Davis, born in March of 2012.

He and his wife Lillie have become a vital part of the Athens community. On January 20, 2021, just two weeks after becoming Athletic Director, Brooks pledged $100,000 to create a need-based scholarship to support UGA students from Athens-Clarke County. His gift created a Georgia Commitment Scholarship (GCS), adding to the more than 550 endowed, need-based scholarships created under the GCS program since its launch in January 2017.

JERE MOREHEAD

UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT
GEORGIA J.D. '80

President Jere W. Morehead began his tenure as the 22nd University of Georgia President on July 1, 2013. Under his leadership, UGA has risen in the rankings of the best public colleges and universities and has completed a series of initiatives to enhance student learning and success, including a requirement for experiential learning for all undergraduates.

Additionally during President Morehead's tenure, the University completed the most successful capital campaign in its history and established the UGA Innovation District, through which students and faculty partner with industry leaders to create products and enterprises that strengthen Georgia's economy. UGA has increased its research expenditures by more than 50% over the past decade and has been ranked first or second in the U.S. for research-based products reaching the marketplace for the past seven years.

In keeping with his focus on student success, President Morehead launched the ALL Georgia program to support students from rural areas and created the Double Dawgs program, which enables students to save time and money by earning an undergraduate and graduate degree in five years or less. Demand for a UGA education has more than doubled during the past decade, with a record 43,000 applications submitted for a spot in the incoming Class of 2027.

President Morehead has served the University of Georgia for more than 35 years in both faculty and administrative roles. Before becoming President, he was Senior Vice President for Academic Affairs and Provost from 2010 to 2013. Prior to 2010, he held several key administrative assignments, including Vice President for Instruction, Vice Provost for Academic Affairs, Associate Provost and Director of the Honors Program, and acting Executive Director of Legal Affairs.

He is the Meigs Professor of Legal Studies in the Terry College of Business, where he has held a faculty appointment since 1986. He is a co-author of several books and book chapters, including The Legal and Regulatory Environment of Business, and he has published scholarly articles on legal topics ranging from export controls to jury selection. He has served as Editor-in-Chief of the American Business Law Journal.

President Morehead currently serves as Co-Chair of the University Leadership Forum, a national initiative led by the Council on Competitiveness. Additional service includes membership on the boards of the Georgia Research Alliance, Georgia Chamber of Commerce, Atlanta Regional Council for Higher Education, Metro Atlanta Chamber of Commerce, and Emory University Candler School of Theology.

He is Chair of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division I Board of Directors and a member of the NCAA Division I Administrative Committee. He previously served as President of the Southeastern Conference (SEC) and Chair of the SEC Executive Committee and as a member of the NCAA's Board of Governors; Presidential Forum; Working Group on Name, Image, and Likeness; and Federal and State Legislation Working Group. He also is a member of the National Football Foundation Board of Trustees.

In 2021, he received the Chief Executive Leadership Award from the Council for the Advancement and Support of Education District III for outstanding leadership and service in support of education. He has received several University-wide teaching awards, including the Josiah Meigs Award—UGA's highest honor for teaching excellence, the Richard B. Russell Award for Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching, the Teacher of the Year Award in the Terry College of Business, and the Lothar Tresp Outstanding Honors Professor Award. He also earned the UGA School of Law's premier honor for alumni, the Distinguished Service Scroll Award.

President Morehead holds a bachelor's degree from Georgia State University and a law degree from the University of Georgia.

6-8 • 215 • SENIOR • GUARD • SOUTH ORANGE, N.J.

◊ Selected as the male student-athlete on the UGAA's Athletic Board for the 2023-24 academic year, chosen to represent roughly 275 student-athletes across nine UGA men's athletic teams.

2022-23 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Named to the SEC's Community Service Team for men's basketball for the second straight season.
◊ One of only three Bulldogs – along with Braelen Bridges and Justin Hill – to log playing time in all 32 games.
◊ Averaged 7.1 points and 2.7 rebounds in 18.7 minutes of action per game.
◊ Georgia's most productive and efficient 3-point shooter, connecting on a team-high 46 shots from the arc at a team-best 38.7 shooting percent.
◊ Of his 3-pointers, 65.2 percent (30-of-46) came against SEC opponents.
◊ Converted on a team-best 81.8 percent (54-of-66) of his trips to the free throw line.
◊ Considerably increased his scoring from non-conference to SEC play, going from 6.2 in November and December to 7.6 points per game the rest of the season.
◊ Recorded 11 double-figure scoring games, including one 20-point outing.
◊ From a "+/-" perspective, was an eye-catching +34 in back-to-back outings matchups Georgia Tech and Notre Dame.
◊ Posted his first career double-digit rebounding tally with 11 boards against Notre Dame en route to his first double-double.
◊ Paced the Bulldogs on the offensive end with a career-high 21 points against Vanderbilt.

2021-22 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Represented Georgia Basketball on the SEC Leadership Council in September 2021, June 2022 and September 2022.
◊ Named to the SEC Community Service Team after leading the Bulldogs' association with the Athens Boys & Girls Clubs.
◊ One of three Bulldogs to play in every game.
◊ Started three of the first six games before coming off the bench for the final 26.

◊ Averaged 6.9 points and 3.2 rebounds in 18.9 minutes per game.
◊ Notched his first double-digit outing with a perfect night from the field (3-of-3 FGs and 2-of-2 3FGs) en route against 10 points against Georgia Tech.

◊ Popped a career-high 20 points in 18 minutes against Wofford and bettered his previous career high in the first half alone. Canned a long 3-pointer at the buzzer to finish with 12 points in the opening period.

◊ Knocked down a 3-pointer with 1:56 left that put Georgia up for good in the Bulldogs' upset of No. 18 Memphis.

◊ After averaging 2.3 points in his first 14 college basketball games, exploded to average 15.0 points in his next three outings against Wofford, Memphis and Jacksonville.

◊ Recorded his first double-digit output in SEC play with 13 points at Mississippi State... and matched that in the win over Alabama.

◊ Converted on 10-of-11 trips to the line against the Crimson Tide, equaling the most points scored by any Bulldog at the charity stripe during the season.

2020-21 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Played at Virginia as a freshman and helped the Cavaliers capture the ACC regular-season title and secure an NCAA Tournament bid.

◊ Logged action in eight contests for the Cavs, four non-conference outings and four ACC affairs.

◊ Made his collegiate debut in the season opener against Towson, scoring three points in four minutes.

◊ Clocked a season-most 11 minutes versus Saint Francis, also recording both his first rebound and assist during the outing against the Red Flash.

◊ Posted his first points in ACC action with a bucket against Clemson on Jan. 21.

A LITTLE ABOUT FRANK

FAVORITE...

MOVIE(S): Inglorious Bastards or Shawshank Redemption
TV SHOW: Breaking Bad
PRO TEAM: Manchester United
BASKETBALL PLAYER: Joel Embiid
NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Cristiano Ronaldo
ACTOR: Dwayne "The Rock" Johnson
ACTRESS: Viola Davis
SONG: The Glory by Kanye West
MEAL: Jollof Rice
ICE CREAM: Strawberry

EARLIEST MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Watching the Rockets winning 1995 NBA title.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: Not really, I was just exposed to it at an earlier age than most. I was exposed to it the same time as soccer. I just loved basketball.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: 6th grade

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER: My versatility

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Winning games

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Losing

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3 because you put more thought into it and it's team oriented. Basketball is a team game anyway so why not play 3-on-3?

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? Shooting

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? Jabri's shooting

WHAT SPORT DO YOU WISH YOU COULD PLAY? Soccer, just the footwork, balance, mobility, agility . . . all that stuff.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Public Service Announcement by Jay-Z

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I just think about my mom. She sacrificed a lot for me to be where I am today.

WHAT DO YOU WISH PEOPLE KNEW ABOUT YOU? I've watched a lot of TV shows and movies and I have pretty good recommendations.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: Going into my junior year. I was a late bloomer.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER: Getting paint touches and creating disadvantages for the defense.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Winning

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Losing

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? Probably 3-on-3 because I can create disadvantages with the screen and roll.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Any song by Gunna

DO YOU HAVE A PREGAME ROUTINE? I play slower music to calm my mind down.

WHAT DO YOU WISH PEOPLE KNEW ABOUT YOU? I have a twin sister, Sierra.

2022-23 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- One of just three Bulldogs – along with Jabri Abdur-Rahim and Braelen Bridges – to see action in all 32 games.
- Earned a starting nod for 10 contests, including seven in SEC play, and averaged 8.6 points, 2.9 assists and 2.7 rebounds in 22.3 minutes of PT per outing.
- Among SEC stat leaders, ranked No. 9 in free throw percentage (.793) and No. 15 in assists (2.9 apg).
- Among statistical leaders for SEC games only, ranked No. 7 in free throw percentage (.797) and No. 13 in assists (2.9 apg).
- Enjoyed a considerable jump offensively in SEC action, upping his scoring average from 7.3 points in non-conference play to 9.3 points (third-best on the team) versus league competition.
- Recorded 13 double-figure scoring outputs – nine of those coming against SEC foes – and one 20-point performance.
- Named to the Greenlight Sunshine Slam all-tourney team after averaging a team-high 14.5 points while shooting 61.5 percent from the field and 71.4 percent from 3-point range in two contests in Daytona Beach.
- Georgia's leading scorer off the bench in six of the first seven games, including a team-high 17-point outing against UAB.
- Earned his first start as a Bulldog against Hampton and delivered what was then a season-high six assists (with 0 TOs).
- Scored eight straight UGA points from the 9:22-6:44 marks of the second half against Mississippi State, giving the Bulldogs for good at 40-39 with his last bucket.
- Returned to his home state to score a season-high 20 points in a season-most 36 minutes at Texas A&M.
- Posted his 1,000th career point at South Carolina.
- Ended the season on a tear, scoring in double figures in eight of the last 10 games and averaging a team-high 13.1 points during that span…after hitting double digits five times and averaging 6.6 points in the first 22 outings.

LONGWOOD HIGHLIGHTS:

- Logged action in 58 games over two seasons, averaging 12.7 points, 4.5 rebounds, 3.7 assists and 1.2 steals.
- Tallied 738 points, 262 boards, 214 assists and 71 steals for the Lancers.
- Produced career highs of 29 points, 10 rebounds (twice), 11 assists, four steals (twice) and 41 minutes.
- Posted 36 double-figure scoring outputs, including eight 20-point performances.
- Notched a pair of double-dight rebound counts – resulting in one double-double – and one double-figure assist output.
- Earned Big South accolades during both seasons, securing a spot of the All-Freshman team in 2021 and following that with first-team All-Big South honors in 2022.
- Twice tabbed Big South Player of the Week as a sophomore after securing Freshman of the Week accolades three times.

A LITTLE ABOUT RJ

FAVORITE...

MOVIE: Any Marvel movie
TV SHOW: Stranger Things
PRO TEAM: Golden State Warriors
BASKETBALL PLAYER: Kevin Durant
ACTRESS: Scarlett Johansson
MUSICAL ARTIST: Bad Bunny
MEAL: White rice, beans and skirt steak

EARLIEST MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Playing with a group of guys from when were about 4 until we were about 12 or 13. We were always together, and we won a lot of championships.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: During the summer of my sophomore year in high school.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER: Athleticism or shooting the ball.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... creating new ties with friends.

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... conditioning

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3, because I'm more of a system guy where I like to move a lot and create stuff for others. It's easier for me to do that in 3-on-3 and be more available.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? My footwork

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? M-A's athleticism

IS THERE A SPORT YOU PLAYED GROWING UP THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? Volleyball helped with my jumping and baseball helped with my eye coordination.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Thunderstruck by AC/DC

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I just pray.

WHO IS THE BEST ATHLETE IN YOUR FAMILY? Me! Dad used to play, but I'm the best athlete.

◊ Opened his college career with an 11-point outing at UT Arlington.
◊ Upped his production considerably during a four-game stretch in late January, averaging 15.8 points and 9.5 boards (with three double-doubles) in contests versus Baylor, Iowa State, Arkansas and TCU.
◊ Poured in 22 points and grabbed 12 rebounds – both season-high tallies – in an 81-60 victory at Iowa State.
◊ Scored 18 points in the Cowboys' upset at No. 6 West Virginia in the regular-season finale, an outing OSU played without starters Cade Cunningham and Isaac Likekele.
◊ Fell just shy of a double-double versus Liberty in the first round of the NCAA Tournament with a 10-point, nine-rebound performance.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

◊ Coached by Tony McIntyre at Orangeville Prep, which he helped capture four consecutive Ontario Scholastic Basketball Association (OSBA) regular-season titles and complile a combined record of 73-4.
◊ Rated as a four-star recruit by ESPN.com, 247Sports.com and rivals.com and ranked as the No. 64 overall recruit in the Class of 2019 by 247Sports.com.
◊ The first two-time BioSteel All-Canadian Player of the Year, an accolade previously won by NBA lottery picks R.J. Barrett and Thon Maker.
◊ Also tabbed BioSteel All-Canada in 2018, 2019 and 2020.
◊ As a senior, averaged 21.8 points, 7.6 rebounds, 2.1 assists and 1.7 steals and shot 57.0 percent from the floor to lead Orangeville to a 21-11 record and win the Ontario Final 8 Championship.
◊ Posted double figures in the scoring column in every game, with 10 20-point outings and two 30-point performances during 2019-20.

2022-23 SEASON HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Walk-on who earned a redshirt for the season while contributing to the scout team but not logging any regular-season PT.
- ◊ Checked in for the final minute of Georgia's exhibition victory over Georgia College.

HIGH SCHOOL HIGHLIGHTS:

- ◊ Coached by Mike Memmen as a senior and by Andrew Thigpen as a junior and a sophomore at Choctawhatchee High.
- ◊ Played in 50 games for Choctaw High's Indians, including 29 contests as a senior.
- ◊ As a senior, averaged 4.3 points and 4.1 rebounds per game to help Choctaw post a 14-15 record and reach the first round of the Florida 5A state tournament.
- ◊ Helped the fourth-seeded Indians upset top-seeded Godby, 69-55, in the semifinals of the 5A District 1 tournament before falling to Pine Forest, 70-62, in the championship matchup. Pine Forest went on to reach the semifinals of the 5A state tourney.
- ◊ Scored a career-high 12 points and grabbed eight rebounds – one shy of his career high – in Choctaw's season-ending setback to Riverside in the round of 32 of the state tournament.
- ◊ Collected a career-most nine rebounds in a 55-47 victory over Escambia on Jan. 11.
- ◊ Popped for 10 points in a 49-44 victory over Milton, more than 20 percent of the Indians' total offensive output in the Jan. 17 contest.
- ◊ As a junior, helped the Indians to a 26-3 record and a runner-up performance in the Florida 5A state tourney.
- ◊ Played in 20 games during his junior season, averaging 1.1 points and 1.4 rebounds.
- ◊ The Indians finished the season at No. 22 overall in MaxPrep's all-classification rankings for the state of Florida.
- ◊ Debuted on the varsity during his sophomore year at Choctaw, which finished 22-7 and advanced to the round of 16 of Florida's 2020 7A state tournament that season.

PERSONAL:

- ◊ Born January 8, 2004, Jaden is the son of Justin Newell and Carmen Mitchell-Newell and is majoring in Biology.
- ◊ Lived in Athens for six years during his childhood – from when he was 6-12 years old – while his grandmother, Jacqueline Mitchell, served as an administrative assistant in Human Resources at UGA.

MEAL: Alfredo
ICE CREAM: Call me boring, but vanilla.

EARLIEST MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: Playing basketball in the back yard, me and my brother, and always trying to beat him.

WHEN DID YOU REALIZE YOU WERE BETTER THAN MOST AT BASKETBALL: I'd say late. Sophomore year of high school I didn't think I was really that good. Junior year was when I kind of took a step.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER: I'll give you two: I'm a winner and I'm a team player.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Winning

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... Losing

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3 because I would say it's the most complete way to play basketball. 1-on-1, you get a lot of dribbles and stuff, but 3-on-3 you've got your other teammates and there's a lot of room for exposure. And if you get exposed, you still have a chance for help defense.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? Shooting

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? I wish I had Noah's or J-Hill's handles. It would be nice to dribble around like that.

IS THERE A SPORT YOU PLAYED GROWING UP THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? Baseball, 100 percent. Just learning to deal with failure. In baseball, batting .300 is good. And football, just being tough and taking hits.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? Guwop by Young Thug and Quavo

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I try not to get too hyped up so I listen to one specific Hawaiian song – Honey baby by Three Plus.

A LITTLE ABOUT RUSSEL

FAVORITE...

MOVIE: American Sniper
TV SHOW: Prison Break
PRO TEAMS: Liverpool & Philadelphia 76ers
NON-BASKETBALL ATHLETE: Cristiano Ronaldo
ACTOR: Bradley Cooper
MUSICAL ARTIST: I listen to everything. You would be surprised. I like John Lennon, and I also like John Denver.
MEAL: Jollof Rice

EARLIEST MEMORY OF BASKETBALL: I don't really have any because I just started playing six years ago.

BASKETBALL SKILL THAT CAME NATURALLY: I always say basketball called me. I didn't call basketball.

WHAT IS YOUR GREATEST ATTRIBUTE AS A BASKETBALL PLAYER: Size and strength. I'm gifited to by 7 feet.

MY FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... scoring 1-on-1

MY LEAST FAVORITE PART OF BASKETBALL IS... the effort, having to give the second effort, or the third effort or the fourth effort to do something. That's tough.

WOULD YOU RATHER PLAY 1-ON-1, 2-ON-2 OR 3-ON-3? 3-on-3 becasue I'm going to be able to ball screen for my teammates, play 1-on-1, play 2-on-2 and play 3-on-3.

WHAT BASKETBALL SKILL WOULD YOU WANT TO IMPROVE? My running hook.

WHAT TEAMMATE'S ATTRIBUTE WOULD YOU LIKE TO HAVE? Silas' basketball IQ...the way he reads everything.

IS THERE A SPORT YOU PLAYED GROWING UP THAT HELPS YOU IN BASKETBALL? Soccer helped with my footwork.

WHAT WOULD YOUR WALK OUT SONG BE? An Afrobeat song . . . I can listen to every Afrobeat song but if I'm going to pick something, I'm going to pick Ye by Burna Boy.

WHAT'S YOUR INSPIRATIONAL MOTTO OR MOMENT BEFORE GAMES? I call my family 3-4 hours before games. They are 5 hours ahead.

WHO IS THE MOST ATHLETIC PERSON IN YOUR FAMILY? Probably me. I'm trying to get my sister, Rose, to play, but she's not really interested right now. She's 14 and 6-2.

The Georgia Bulldogs displayed significant improvement during their initial season under head coach Mike White.

The Bulldogs' most dramatic increase was where most fans would wish for – in the win column. After compiling a 6-26 record in 2021-22, Georgia upped that tally to 16 victories under White. The "+10" effort represented the second-largest regular-season increase among all Power 5 programs.

In fact, with a Jan. 11 victory over Mississippi State, just the third outing in conference play for the Bulldogs, Georgia doubled both its overall (from six to 12) and SEC (from one to two) win totals from the previous season.

"We did some good things in Year 1," White said. "I mean, we were sitting there at 13-4 and 3-1 in league play at one point, which was unexpected. We didn't finish the way we want to finish, and we try to have a higher-level culture. We want to build a championship-level culture. We're going to have a championship-level culture. We're going to be a little bit more consistent and take steps in that regard to where we know what we're getting night in and night out, day in and day out."

Georgia was 16-10 before a brutal February slate when six of the Bulldogs' nine games were against eventual NCAA Tournament teams.

Much of Georgia's success was enjoyed at Stegeman Coliseum, where the Bulldogs won their first 10 home dates of the season. That made the 2022-23 team just the sixth in UGA history to notch a double-digit home winning streak.

Georgia eventually finished with a 13-4 record at home, matching the third-most regular-season and fourth-most overall victories at Stegeman Coliseum in a season. Georgia's record for home Ws came during the 2015-16 and 2013-14 campaigns when the Bulldogs notched 15 wins – including one NIT victory each season – at Stegeman as outlined below.

UGA'S BAKER'S DOZEN OF STARTING 5s

Eleven Bulldogs were mixed and matched to comprise 13 different starting lineups during 2022-23. Most of those were in non-conference play when Georgia used eight different quintets over the first 11 contests. The Bulldogs battled through a series of injuries and illnesses that resulted in 16 DNPs by six players. In fact, Georgia's 11th outing of the season was the first when the entire roster was available.

After settling into a consistent quintet for nine games – from Notre Dame on Dec. 18 to Vanderbilt on Jan. 21 – the Bulldogs used five more sets of starters over their last 13 contests.

In Mike White's first season, Georgia won as many games in November as the Bulldogs did during the entire 2021-22 campaign.

No Bulldog started every game and only four – Jabri Abdur-Rahim, Braelen Bridges, Justin Hill and Mardrez McBride – played in every contest during the season.

The usage of numerous players wasn't limited to the starting lineuip. All 12 players who saw playing time for Georgia during the 2022-23 season averaged double-digit minutes.

LOTS OF DOGS LEAD THE WAY

Six Bulldogs led Georgia offensively in games during the season. Including ties in certain contests, Terry Roberts paced UGA a team-leading 11 times. In addition, Kario Oquendo was Georgia's scoring leader in 10 games, followed Braelen Bridges in four outings, Justin Hill and Mardrez McBride in four outings each and Jabri Abdur-Rahim in one matchup.

A VERY PRODUCTIVE BENCH

The Bulldogs who came off the bench scored 741 points of Georgia's 2,193 points. That was over a third – 33.8 percent to be exact – of UGA's total offensive output.

The Bulldogs' bench outscored its opponents' reserves 741-588, a hefty +153 margin. According to KenPom.com, Georgia ranked No. 3 nationally in bench minutes, with reserves accounting for 44.4 percent of the total PT.

REBOUNDING BECAME A TEAM EFFORT

Getting on the glass was a team effort for Georgia during the 2022-23 season. A nation-leading 10 different Bulldogs collected more than 50 rebounds throughout the campaign.

THE 70-POINT MARK WAS KEY

The strong indicator for Georgia's success during the 2022-23 season was a defensive standard. The Bulldogs were 14-1 when their opponents score 70 points or less. That ledger includes five of Georgia's six SEC victories.

SOME HIGHLY-EDUCATED BULLDOGS

A trio of Bulldogs – Braelen Bridges, Jaxon Etter and Jailyn Ingram – wrapped up their college basketball careers in March and then received master's degrees from the University of Georgia in May.

Etter earned both a bachelor's in Real Estate and a a master's in Financial Planning, Housing and Consumer Economics in just four years. Bridges and Ingram arrived in Athens as graduate transfers and secured their master's in Nonprofit Management & Leadership from Georgia.

Rayshaun Hammonds double-double of 15 points and 12 rebounds led Georgia to a 65-62 upset at No. 9 Memphis on Jan. 4, 2020. The victory was just the Bulldogs' second-ever road win over a ranked non-conference opponent. Georgia's only other road win over an AP top-25 team came on Dec. 29, 1977, when the Bulldogs upset No. 7 Louisville, 73-70, in the championship of the Louisville Classic.

2008 SEC TOURNAMENT CHAMPIONS

Terrance Woodbury (above left) and MVP Sundiata Gaines (above right) led Georgia to the 2008 SEC Tournament championship with an unforgettable run that included two games in one day. After knocking off Ole Miss in overtime on Thursday, a category F2 tornado struck downtown Atlanta on the night of March 14 shortly before the Bulldogs were to take on Kentucky. It forced postponement of that second-round game, and the tournament's remainder was played at Alexander Memorial Coliseum (top), home court of arch-rival Georgia Tech. Georgia defeated both the Wildcats and Mississippi State on March 15 and then outlasted Arkansas in the championship game on March 16.

The late Alec Kessler, an All-America forward at Georgia in 1989-90, arguably rates among the top scholar-athletes in collegiate history. Kessler, a 3.91 student in Microbiology, was twice named the U.S. Basketball Writers Scholar-Athlete of the Year. For being so honored, Kessler was awarded a pair of $20,000 post-graduate scholarships. Kessler, who played four seasons for the NBA's Miami Heat, in 1991 donated all $40,000 from these scholarships to UGA's general scholarship fund.

Each SEC school annually selects a Legend who made outstanding contributions on and off the court and brought notoriety, prestige and honor to both their school and the SEC. The Legends are recognized at the SEC Tournament.

DOMINIQUE WILKINS

Known as the "Human Highlight Film," Dominique Wilkins arrived in Athens in 1979 and helped take Georgia Basketball to new heights.

Individually, Wilkins was a two-time All-American and a three-time All-SEC honoree. He was also tabbed both SEC Player of the Year and MVP of the SEC Tournament in 1981.

From a team perspective, Wilkins led Georgia to the 1981 NIT, the Bulldogs' first postseason appearance. A year later, he helped Georgia advance to the NIT semifinals.

Wilkins entered the NBA Draft after his junior year. He was the No. 3 overall pick by the Utah Jazz but soon thereafter traded to the Atlanta Hawks. Wilkins played the majority of his career with the Hawks, where he was a nine-time All-Star, a seven-time All-NBA selection and a two-time slam dunk champion.

In 1991, Wilkins became the first Bulldog to have his jersey – No. 21 – retired by Georgia.

Wilkins was inducted into the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2004, was a member of the Atlanta Sports Hall of Fame's inaugural class in 2005, was Georgia Basketball's first inductee into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2006 and was inducted into the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

HUGH DURHAM

During 17 seasons at Georgia, Hugh Durham elevated Georgia Basketball to a national stage.

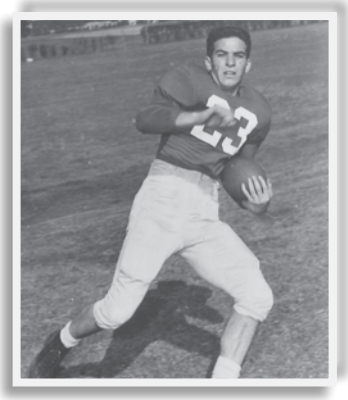
Durham is UGA's winningest coach with 297 victories. Prior to his arrival, Georgia had never received a postseason bid in 74 seasons. The Bulldogs reached postseason play 11 times during Durham's tenure and also won their first SEC Tournament in 1983 and SEC Championship in 1990. He was named SEC Coach of the Year three times – in 1985, 1987 and 1990.

In UGA's initial NCAA Tournament appearance in 1983, the Bulldogs advanced to the Final Four. Durham's Dogs defeated St. John's and North Carolina to win the East Regional before falling to eventual champion N.C. State.

Durham posted 633 career victories in 37 seasons, with 230 at Florida State and 106 at Jacksonville bookending his wins at Georgia. He was the first coach in Division I history to take two schools to their first Final Four and just the sixth to reach the Final Four at two schools.

Durham was inducted into the FSU Hall of Fame 1980, the Kentucky High School Hall of Fame in 1994, the Florida Sports Hall of Fame in 1999, the Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2009, the Kentucky Sports Hall of Fame in 2012 and the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame in 2016.

ZIPPY MOROCCO



Anthony "Zippy" Morocco came to Athens from Youngstown, Ohio and became UGA's first All-American in basketball and one of the Bulldogs' best two-sport performers ever.

Morocco led the SEC in scoring in 1953 at 23.6 points per game on 590 points, breaking the existing SEC mark of 540 points by Kentucky's Cliff Hagan. He led the Bulldog football team in kickoff returns three consecutive years and in punt returns twice. He also was Georgia's top receiver in 1950 and averaged over 10 yards every time he touched the ball.

Morocco was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 1986.

ALEC KESSLER

Alec Kessler is widely regarded as one of the greatest student-athletes in the history of college athletics.

On the basketball court, he broke UGA's career scoring record, was named SEC Player of the Year and All-America in 1990 and was chosen No. 12 overall in the NBA Draft.

Kessler graduated with a 3.91 GPA while majoring in Microbiology. He was named men's basketball's Academic All-American of the Year in both 1989 and 1990 and was selected as the top Academic All-American for all sports in 1990.

Kessler was elected to the state of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2015.

UGA CIRCLE OF HONOR

ALEC KESSLER – 2000
ZIPPY MOROCCO – 2002
JARVIS HAYES – 2020

The Circle of Honor is designed to pay tribute to extraordinary student-athletes and coaches who by their performance and conduct have brought honor to the university and themselves, and who by their actions have contributed to the tradition of the Georgia Bulldogs. The criteria for selection also stipulate that each recipient has earned his or her academic degree.

WILLIE ANDERSON

Atlanta native Willie Anderson blossomed into one of the college basketball's most diverse talents during his career at UGA. As a senior, Anderson averaged 16.7 points, 4.0 assists and 1.9 steals in 1988. He then earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team that summer.

Anderson was drafted No. 10 overall by San Antonio Spurs in the 1988 NBA Draft. He was a first-team All-NBA Rookie pick in 1989 and went on to play nine seasons in the NBA.

Anderson was enshrined in the State of Georgia Sports Hall of Fame in 2020.

Dominique Wilkins was the No. 3 overall selection by the Utah Jazz 1982 but was traded to Atlanta soon thereafter. Wilkins scored 21,369 of his 26,668 career points with the Hawks.

Kentavious Caldwell-Pope was the No. 8 overall pick and selected by the Detriot Pistons during the 2008 NBA Draft. Caldwell-Pope was Georgia's sixth, first-round draft pick and third since 1999.

Anthony Edwards was taken No. 1 overall by the Minnesota in 2020, a wise pick considering midway through his second season he became the fourth-youngest player to top 2,500 points.

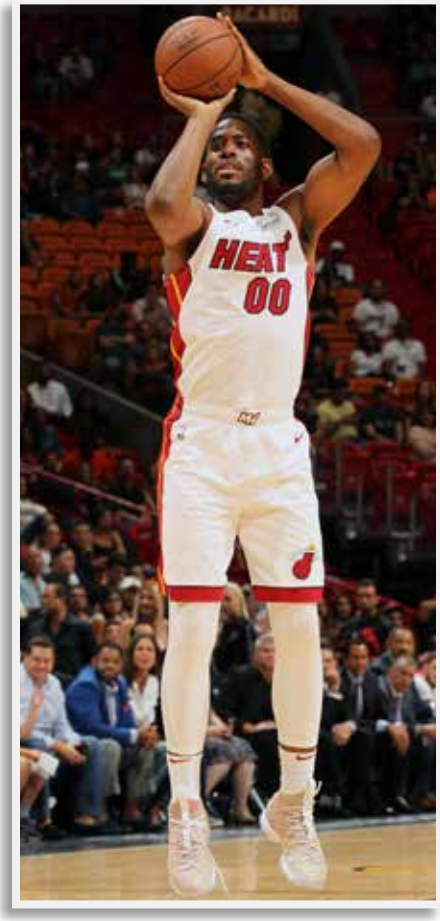
YANTE MATEN
2018-19 ..... Miami Heat



Yante Maten went undrafted in 2018 but then chose to sign with the Miami Heat, which had no picks in the NBA Draft. A solid summer league performance earned Maten a two-way contract for 2018-19.

VERN FLEMING

1984 LOS ANGELES OLYMPIC GAMES

Vern Fleming, one of the finest Bulldog performers in history, made his mark at every level of competitive basketball. In 1984, he earned a spot on the U.S. Olympic Team and played a large role in its Gold Medal-winning effort. Fleming averaged 7.7 points during the Los Angeles Olympics, connecting on 51.1 percent of his shots. He also tallied 19 rebounds, 19 assists and nine steals.

Many consider the 1984 Americans as the finest amateur assemblage in the sport's history. The squad featured future Naismith Hall of Fame inductees Michael Jordan, Chris Mullin and Patrick Ewing.

From 1984-95, Fleming was a standout player for the NBA's Indiana Pacers.

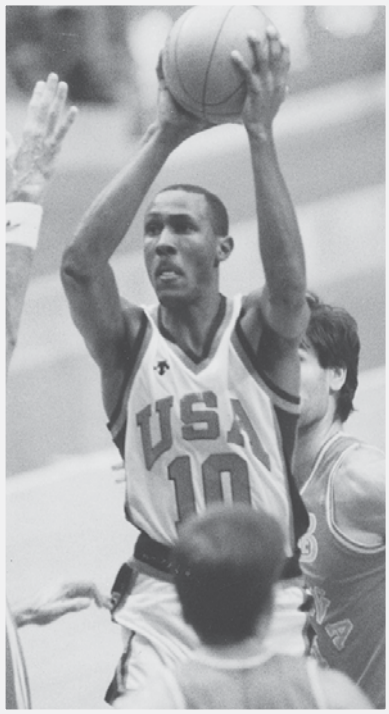
WILLIE ANDERSON

1988 SEOUL OLYMPIC GAMES

Willie Anderson was star performer of the 1987 and 1988 Bulldogs, leading the '87 squad to an NCAA Tournament berth.

In 1988, Anderson was selected to the U.S. Olympic Team and in the same year was the first-round draft pick of the San Antonio Spurs. The Americans earned a bronze medal at the Seoul Olympics. Anderson averaged 5.0 points per game while pacing the squad by shooting 64.0 percent from the field. He also added 13 rebounds, six assists, six steals and four blocks.

Anderson returned from Seoul and played seven years for the Spurs before doing stints with Toronto, New York and Miami to round out his 10-year career in the league.



JUMAINE JONES

1998 GOODWILLGAMES

The 6-7 forward put an exclamation mark on his outstanding freshman season at Georgia by making the 12-man U.S. team for the Goodwill Games. Jones started all five games for the Americans and averaged 7.4 points for the Gold Medal winners.

TREY THOMPKINS

2009 FIBA U19 CHAMPIONSHIPS

Thompkins played a key role in the U.S. winning its first U19 World Championship in 18 years. He averaged 10.6 points – second-best on the team – and 5.1 rebounds per game. He also had the Americans' highest single-game scoring effort, 22 points in a 4th-round win over Greece. A year later, Thompkins was named to the USA Select squad, a group of collegians that worked as training partners alongside the USA National Team.

DAMEN WILKINS

2015 PAN AM GAMES

Wilkins, 35, started every contest in the 2015 Pan Am Games in Toronto helped the Americans secure a Bronze Medal. He averaged 13.2 points while shooting 54.8 percent from the floor, 75.0 percent from 3-point range and 70.8 percent from the line. Wilkins also chipped in 5.0 rebounds in 25.4 minutes per game.

YANTE MATEN

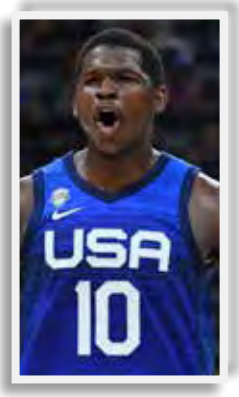
2020 AMERICUP QUALIFYING

Yante Maten donned the Red, White & Blue for USA Basketball in 2020, suiting up for the National Team participating in qualifying for the 2021 Americup. Maten started both games and averaged 14.0 points – while shooting 68.8 percent from the field – and 5.5 rebounds in victories over Bahamas and Mexico.

ANTHONY EDWARDS

2023 FIBA WORLD CUP

Anthony Edwards earned first-team all-tournament honors after he helped lead the USA National Team to a fourth place finish at the 2023 FIBA World Cup in Manila. Edwards started all eight games of the tournament and led the USA offensively in five of those contests. He paced the USA in both scoring (18.9 ppg) and playing time (26.0 mpg) and was the team's second-leading rebounder (4.6 rpg). Edwards became just the third USA player to top the 20-point plateau in four World Cup contests, joining Kevin Durant and Paul Pierce. Edwards exploded for 35 points in the USA's matchup with Lithuania, equaling the second-highest output ever by a USA player in World Cup action behind only Durant's 38-point performance in 2010.



The first games in Georgia basketball history took place in the old YMCA building, located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton streets.

Since the inaugural season of 1905-06, Georgia basketball has called six different buildings home. These facilities have held a wide range of usefulness and pertinence to basketball. There's little doubt, however, that the Bulldogs' current home of Stegeman Coliseum is the best, most accommodating home they've ever had.

During the 1906-12 seasons, Georgia games were played in the old Athens YMCA building located at the corner of Lumpkin and Clayton Streets, currently the site of the Georgia Theater. The seating capacity for spectators was about 200, but it didn't seem to matter in those days. The earliest Bulldogs played their games in relative anonymity. Very rarely did the attendance reach full capacity at the YMCA building.

The building that is now called Memorial Hall on campus was the second gymnasium used by the Bulldog cagers. Construction on this facility began in 1910 and was to be built by the Alumni and the YMCA in a joint effort. The Alumni Association, however, eventually assumed full responsibility for the funds for its construction. Only in a partial state of completion, the team began to use the auditorium of "Alumni Hall," as it was called then, for its home games. Spectators viewed the games from a balcony which ran around the playing court, and the baskets were affixed to this balcony. In fact, the balcony became quite the advantage for Bulldog hoopsters, who had to tailor the arc of their shots to avoid hitting it.

Alumni Hall was used until about 1920, when the team moved to another on-campus location known as "The Octagon." It was located about where the current Main Library parking lot is, between the library and Jackson Street. Built in 1916 for $3,600 and for the purpose of accommodating summer-school functions, the Octagon was made of wood and sat approximately 1,400 people. The main problem for basketball was the lack of a heating system in this 8-sided building. There was also a four-foot opening around the wall up to the roof, with the roof overhanging to prevent rain from blowing in. The Octagon was used sparingly because of the absence of heat and also because of the ever-growing crowds.

Moss Auditorium, formerly the third floor of what became the Gallant-Belk store, was used for most of the games from 1920 until Woodruff Hall was completed. Crowds of up to 1,500 were estimated to have attended some of the home games.

Around this time, however, Coach Herman J. Stegeman was building quite a program. It became necessary for the basketball team to enjoy its own facility to accommodate the large crowds. Just before the completion of Woodruff Hall in 1925, the Bulldogs moved back into Alumni Hall, the construction of which had finally resumed after a fund-raising drive.

Excavation began on November 20, 1924 for the construction of Woodruff Hall, the building that was named for George and Harry Woodruff of Columbus, Ga. This facility was built in a central on-campus location, where the Journalism/Psychology building now stands, and had a seating capacity of 3,500. There was space enough for three basketball courts, with the main court measuring not quite the required length of 94 feet. Built at an estimated cost of $53,000, Woodruff Hall was officially dedicated by Dr. S.V. Sanford on Feb. 21, 1925 in a game where Georgia defeated Georgia Tech 34-24.

Woodruff Hall served as the Bulldogs' home for nearly 40 years. By the end of that stretch, however, many believed it had become the bane of the program.

Harbin "Red" Lawson was Georgia's coach for the last 13 years in Woodruff Hall. Publicly, he joked that it was the only basketball facility where wind direction and velocity affected his strategy. Other coaches, led by Kentucky's Adolph Rupp, despised playing games there. So dimly lit was Woodruff Hall that Auburn coach Joel Eaves turned out half the lights in his own gym, just to prepare for the Georgia game.

Eventually, Eaves became Athletic Director at Georgia. Two years into his tenure, in 1964, the Bulldogs dedicated their current home as the Georgia Coliseum. In 1996, it was given its current name of Stegeman Coliseum in honor of the man that first lifted the Georgia basketball program into prominence.

Over its 50 years, Stegeman Coliseum has hosted its share of memories, and also extracurricular functions. Operated in a co-op agreement with the University's agricultural college, the Bulldogs once shared the building with various rodeos and other livestock shows. And in 1996, the world's sporting attention turned to Athens, where Stegeman played host to volleyball and rhythmic gymnastics competitions at the 1996 Summer Olympic Games.

Zippy Morocco, Georgia's first All-American in 1953, played three years in the spartan conditions of Woodruff Hall, home of the Bulldogs from 1925 until 1964.

ENSURING THE FUTURE OF UGA ATHLETICS

In an effort to permanently fund student-athlete scholarships, the UGA Athletic Association founded the Athletic Scholarship Endowment Program. Contact The Georgia Bulldog Club at 877-GA-DAWGS today to learn more about endowment opportunities for one of UGA's 21 varsity sports. All Athletic Scholarship Endowment Donors are invited to an annual reception where they have the opportunity to connect with the recipient of their scholarship. To date, more than 200 scholarships have been endowed.
